U.S. and Red China Open Far East Talks

Top Authorities Silent on Details of Any Proposals

Warsaw — (U) — U. S. and Chinese communist representatives sat down in a Polish palace today to begin talks on the Far Eastern crisis.

U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and red Chinese Ambassador Wang Ping-nan braved a barrage of reporters and photographers as they arrived at Myslowicki palace, eighteenth century hunting lodge of the kings of Poland.

The negotiators said they would discuss the crisis in the Far East, as the world had assumed they would, but top sources were silent on details of any proposals to be put forward.

It is assumed in diplomatic circles here that if the talks show any sign of progress they will move to a higher level for the definitive stage. The conference here was announced as a resumption of U. S.-red China discussions held in Geneva for 21 years, but broken off last Dec. 12.

Basically, the position of the two parties on the formosa strait problem are far apart. The United States is expected to maintain that it can do nothing which would compromise its nationalistic Chinese allies on Formosa and the red Chinese to stress their right to "liberate" that island and rule it.

Clough Assists Beam
The United States is expected to urge Peiping to pledge publicly that it will not use military force to obtain its aims in Formosa strait—control of Quemoy and other offshore islands as well as of Formosa.

Beam was assisted by Ralph Clough, counselor of the U. S. embassy in Bern, Switzerland, who took part in the earlier stalemated talks with Wang when Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson was chief American negotiator.

The Chinese-American conversations had not been expected to start until later in the week, and there was con-

Waupaca Man Killed as Car Leaves Road

Sixth County Victim Raises State Toll To 567 for Year

(Picture on Page 9)

Duane H. Pomeroy, 26, 500 N. Franklin street, Waupaca, was killed almost instantly as his car fell into a cattle underpass on Highway 54 west of Highway 142 about 8:15 Sunday night.

His death and eight others on state highways over the weekend raised the state toll to 567, compared to 614 at this time in 1957. It was Waupaca county's sixth traffic fatality of 1958.

Fell Into Underpass

Dr. John W. Monsted, New London, acting Waupaca county coroner, said Pomeroy died of a broken neck. Mrs. Pomeroy, a passenger, was thrown from the car and was taken to Waupaca Riverside hospital for treatment of a cut on her head and knee and for shock.

County police said the car went out of control and traveled 148 feet on the shoulder of the road before going into the cattle underpass.

Miss Ann E. Jones, 9184 N. Oneida street, Appleton, told police she met the Pomeroy car on the highway before the accident. The car had swerved away from her car and when she glanced in the rear view

4 Killed in Plane Crash

Light Craft Falls Into Wooded Area on Farm Near Kendall

Kendall, Wis. — (U) — A light plane plunged into a wooded area near here Sunday night, killing four persons from River Falls, Wis.

The victims were identified early today as Milton John Senzig, 35, the pilot; his wife, Marcella, 36; Mrs. Lois Wussler, 39, and Clarence W. Wussler, 23.

The Piper Tri-Pacer crashed atop a hill on the Gus Keller farm 6 miles west of here and about 40 miles east of La Crosse.

A farmer in the area had reported seeing a plane "in trouble" while flying low in a rainstorm about 9 p.m.

A search party led by Monroe County Deputy Sheriff Ernst Hushka found the wreckage, "rolled up into a ball," on the Keller farm about an hour later.

Hushka radioed the sheriff's office for acetylene torches to clear the tangled wreckage. Authorities said the plane was licensed to the Falls Flying club of River Falls.

River Falls is about 150 miles northwest of the crash scene.

Officials Alert at Closed Schools but No Disorders Occur

Faubus Declares Classes May Not be Started Until Oct. 7

Little Rock, Ark. — (U) — Little Rock's four senior high schools remained closed and silent today and Gov. Orval Faubus said classes may not begin until after Oct. 7.

There were few spectators and no disturbances in the areas around the schools.

Neither Faubus nor federal officials gave any indications of the next moves in the struggle over the supreme court ruling that Negroes should be permitted to enroll in the high schools.

Faubus said at a news conference that a plan to reopen the schools on a private basis is under study. He said the question of when they will be reopened "will be answered in due course of events."

Referendum Oct. 7
In explanation, he said, "it is possible the schools will stay closed until the election, Oct. 7."

This is the date he has set for a special referendum in which the people of the Little Rock school district will vote on whether they want segregated schools, or are willing to see them integrated.

About 50 reporters and photographers, and considerably fewer spectators, stood in front of the guarded grounds of Central High today at the hour when classes normally would have started.

Teachers went to their classrooms as usual, but the only students who appeared were some girls who said they were drum majorettes, going in to practice for appearances at football games. Police cars circled the building constantly. Guards employed by the school board patrolled the grounds.

In addition to the police, prowl cars, special armed guards, employed by the school board, were on duty at the school. U. S. marshals, also in cars, appeared from time to time but stayed in cars.

State troopers, also armed, came on duty at Faubus' official residence at 8:15. A reporter who passed through the gate and approached the mansion was ordered to leave.

Reports persisted today that the federal government is preparing some legal action against Faubus.

Assembly Meeting May be Among Most Important in Years

United Nations, N.Y. — (U) — Secretary of State Dulles set up strategy conferences today for the thirteenth U.N. General assembly session which he says may be the most important in years.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko also was in New York preparing for the session which starts tomorrow. He and Dulles were expected to clash in the debate beginning Thursday over such is-ssues as the Formosa-strait struggle between communist and nationalist Chinese. Dulles is to speak that a day.

He scheduled a meeting this morning at headquarters of the U.S. permanent delegation on Park avenue with Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, and other American representatives to the 81-nation assembly. He also intended to see other foreign ministers.

Vital Problems
Dulles flew into New York from Washington late yesterday, hours after Gromyko arrived from Moscow. He said the assembly session "will be perhaps the most important that has been held for several years."

"There will be vital problems of consolidating peace which are brought to the fore-by the Soviet backing of Chinese communist aggression," he told reporters.

Plunges Through Open Span; 2 Diesels, 3 Cars Submerged in Newark Bay

Elizabeth, N.J. — (U) — A Jersey Central commuter train roared through an open drawbridge today and plunged 50 feet into Newark bay. Railroad officials estimated at least 40 persons perished. Twenty-one others were reported injured.

The 5-car train had started from Bay Head, a north New Jersey shore resort, and was headed for Jersey City, where passengers board ferries for downtown New York.

Its two diesel locomotives and first two passenger cars fell from the open span and were immediately submerged in more than 40 feet of oily water.

A third car was left hanging dizzily, half in the water and half out. But two and a half hours later it, too, slipped into Newark bay. Railroad officials estimated at least 40 persons perished. Twenty-one others were reported injured.

The estimate of 40 dead came from W. A. Nickel, assistant general manager of the railroad.

By early afternoon, 13 bodies were recovered, mostly by skin divers.

One man was recovered alive from the murky bay but was dead on arrival at Bayonne hospital. He was identified as F. H. Douglas of Rumson, N.J., a partner in a stock specialist firm of Newark.

The first passenger coach was empty — a "deadhead."

The train was believed to be carrying 90 to 100 passengers.

Opened for Barge
The entire bridge is about one and a half miles long and spans the main channel of Newark bay between southwestern Staten Island and New Jersey.

The raised drawbridge section is a horizontal span about 200 feet long. It had been opened this morning to allow a sand barge to pass below.

Railroad employee George Barry, 32, of Plainfield, N. J., was one of first survivors to reach shore.

"I was in the third coach reading my paper when suddenly there were people tumbled all over me and water pouring in.

"The coach filled quickly with water to the halfway point. People broke windows to escape and others rushed up into the dry part of the car."

Reason Not Determined
Barry said that despite the sudden nightmare passengers generally did not panic. He himself escaped with a cut hand.

The train had left Elizabeth, N. J., when it rolled through the open drawbridge about halfway across the 1500-foot span to Bayonne.

The train was within three miles of its destination at Jersey City. There passengers take the ferry boats across the Hudson to downtown New York City.

"We don't know yet how it happened," said Nate James, publicity director for the Jersey Central. "It was a routine bridge opening. Normally the trains stop when they get the red signal. But this fellow didn't stop."

"When a train doesn't stop, there are derails to throw the train off the track and keep it from going into the water."

Police and coast guard launches and helicopters swarmed over the bay, normally 35 feet deep at low tide. Skin divers also were rushed to the scene to aid in rescue efforts.

Many Injured
Ambulances were called in from all over the area. Bayonne hospital said the injured were arriving too fast to count.

The coast guard rushed every available craft to the area as a mammoth rescue operation got under way. Two police launches from New York were dispatched.

The coast guard said the water at the spot is 35 feet deep at low tide. The bay is a heavily used ship waterway.

Truman to Give 7 Campaign Talks

Truman will address the United Steelworkers convention in Atlantic City, N. J., on Wednesday, a Democratic state rally in Albany, N. Y., on Thursday, a Maryland party fund raising dinner in Baltimore on Friday, and another fund raising dinner in Charlestown, W. Va., on Saturday.

The former president will speak also at fund raising dinners in San Francisco, Sept. 25, Seattle, Wash., Sept. 26, and Portland, Ore., Sept. 27.

Algerian Assassins Fail to Kill Soustelle in Tommy Gun Attack

Paris — (U) — Algerian assassins tried to kill French Information Minister Jacques Soustelle with tommy guns in the heart of Paris today but missed him.

Soustelle, a former governor general of Algeria, was cut above the eyes and under the chin

Quote Ike on Cost Of Living Question

Says President Has Accused Democrats of Trying to Manufacture Campaign Issue

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith
Newport, R.I. — President Eisenhower was quoted as having accused the Democrats today of trying to manufacture a campaign issue on the cost of living.

The account of the president's accusation was given to the newsmen by Rhode Island Republican candidates for congress and state offices after they had conferred with Eisenhower for 10 minutes at the summer White House.

In reply to questions, the candidate reported there was no discussion of the trouncing Republicans took last week in the elections in neighboring Maine, and no talk of the national GOP picture.

And they said there was no mention of Sherman Adams, Eisenhower's controversial aide. Some GOP candidates

Say Economic Conditions to Affect Voting

But Republicans Claim Local Issues More Important

Washington — Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.) said today Democratic polls indicate the outcome of the congressional elections may hinge more upon economic conditions than any other issue.

Smathers said a nationwide poll made for the Democratic senatorial campaign committee he heads disclosed "a general feeling of insecurity among the voters, particularly with regard to economic matters."

"Ten per cent of the people who were interviewed in the poll said that someone in their immediate family who previously was working was out of a job," Smathers said in an interview.

He did not say just when the survey was made, but added: "About 52 per cent of the people said they are making as much money as they were a year ago but they are concerned about what is going to happen in the future. About 8 per cent are making more money and the remainder are taking home less pay."

GOP Beliefs
However, Victor A. Johnston, field representative of the Republican senatorial campaign committee, said his personal investigations in many sections of the country have indicated the business upturn has erased the economic issue except in a few distressed areas.

Johnston said he thinks most senate races, for instance, are going to be settled largely on the basis of local issues.

Democrats have been blasting at what they contend is the Republican administration's failure to meet fully the challenge of unemployment and business recession during the last year.

In a memorandum furnished all Democratic senate and house candidates, Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler has urged them to claim party credit for the recent economic upturn.

He advised the candidates to say that "Democratic highway construction, housing, public works and small business law, passed over Republican opposition, are responsible for the up turn from the depths of the Eisenhower-Nixon recession."

British Judge Sends Nine Youths To Prison for Attacks on Negroes

London — A British judge today cracked down on racial rioting by sending nine youths to jail for four years each for attacks on Negroes.

The nine, all between 17 and 20 years of age, went through the Notting Hill area Aug. 24 armed with iron bars, table legs and a knife beating up Negroes. It was the beginning of London race riots though disorders in the city of Nottingham preceded the Notting Hill raids by one week.

Judge Cyril Salmon told the youths: "It was you men who started the whole of this violence in Notting Hill."

First Drastic Action
"You are a minute and insignificant section of the population, but you have brought shame upon the district, in which you live and have filled the whole nation with horror, indignation and disgust."

The jail sentences were the first drastic action taken by British authorities to stop the racial violence.

The nine defendants were charged with wounding three Negroes and assaulting two others.

The judge told them: "Your quarry was any man, providing there were not more than two of them together, whose skin happened to be a different color from your own. Your object was to instill stark terror and inflict as much pain and grievous injury as you could."

"During that night you savagely attacked five peaceful and law-abiding citizens without any shadow of an excuse. None of them had done you any harm. None of them had offered you the slightest provocation. Indeed, you knew nothing about any of them except that their skin happened to be a color of which you apparently did not approve."

Blames Society
Peter Webster, defending had pleaded that the substantial part of the blame lay not with the youths but with "the society in which we live."

At London's Marylebone magistrate's court a 25-year-old West Indian, Alvanston Mitchell, was found guilty of damaging a police car by throwing a milk bottle during racial disturbances at Paddington. Magistrate Geoffrey Raphael granted Mitchell bail pending a probation officer's report. He told the West Indian:

"Some of you colored men think there is a prejudice against colored men. Let me tell you this: If you were a white man you would be sent to prison here and now. It is only because you are a colored man and were subjected to some provocation by a lot of hoodlums that I am not dealing with you in that way."

2 More Marine Battalions to Leave Lebanon

1st, 2nd Units Will Come Home, Navy Spokesman Reports

Beirut — Two more U. S. Marine battalions are leaving Lebanon and are going home.

The U. S. Navy announced most of the 2,012 men of the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 8th Marine regiment would go on shipboard today. Working parties began loading equipment yesterday.

Their departure will leave one marine battalion of about 1,600 men and 8,000 Army men in Lebanon as the rear-guard of a force that began landing here July 15.

One marine battalion, withdrawn in August on the eve of an emergency U.N. general assembly session on the Middle East, remained with the U. S. 6th fleet in the Mediterranean.

Coming Home
A navy spokesman said the 1st and 2nd battalions will be sent back to the United States.

Nearly 15,000 marines and soldiers were ordered here at the request of President Camille Chamoun who charged that the United Arab Republic was endangering Lebanon's independence.

The emergency U.N. session instructed Secretary Gen. Dag Hammarskjold to make practical arrangements to facilitate withdrawal of the troops. He has announced no agreement by Arab countries on stationing a U.N. police force, observer force or representatives in the Middle East to watch out for infiltration and subversion.

It is generally expected that Lebanon's President - Elect Fuad Chehab will ask the American troops to leave soon after he takes office Sept. 24.

Return to Normal
Conditions have been gradually returning to normal since Chehab's election. Rebel leaders announced that starting today stores in the business section of Beirut could stay open until 1 p.m. without danger of being bombed for violating a rebel strike order. The rebels called the strike May 10, but eased up a week ago.

State Democrats Face Up to Providing Funds For Party Candidates

Only $31,000 of $177,000 Goal Raised So Far; Drives Planned

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Madison — The Wisconsin Democratic party brass Sunday faced up to the problem of backing up with money the hope of breaching the Republican fortifications in the state in the November elections.

The Democratic state committee examined the party's purse during a session here this weekend and found it strained as usual. Party men heard that about $31,000 out of a $177,000 budget prepared by the state headquarters has been raised so far, and made plans for raising more cash in a series of fast-moving activities during the next month. Sen. William Proxmire, running for reelection, summed up the worry when he said:

"Our main problem is dough."

Divide Funds
Democratic nominees and members of the state committee met at the home of state chairman Patrick Lucey and decided:

1. To give Sen. Gaylord Nelson, candidate for governor, and Proxmire $1,000 each, and lesser state office candidates $500 each, with promises of more later if funds are raised.

2. To put supreme effort into a precinct by precinct "Dollars for Democrats" house to house drive on the weekend of Sept. 26, in a campaign financing scheme sponsored on a bi-partisan basis by the American Heritage foundation and others. Republicans are planning a similar drive for financial help from persons who do not ordinarily contribute to political campaign chests.

3. To brush off again Kenneth Klinkert, a Waukesha county resident who boasts that he is an atheist and who has been clamoring for admission to the party as a paid member for months.

4. To approve what Lucey humorously described as "operation carpet-bag", a plan to import a battery of nationally known party figures to buttress the vote appeals of the locally nominated Democratic candidates.

Really Republican
Mrs. Rose Grobe of Milwaukee complained that Eugene Lamb, the nominee for state treasurer, "is really a Republican". Lamb, who attended the session, said little. He formerly served in the state legislature as a Republican.

Returning from a midwestern party rally at Omaha, two party leaders offered as major campaign issues the high cost of living, and distress in rural areas about the ratio of farm prices received and paid.

The state committee meeting, open to the press, saw no reference to possible money from organized labor sources which have contributed generously to the party tickets in recent elections.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Three Men Offered Papers at the closing technical sessions of the 2-day fall meeting here of the American Pulp and Paper Superintendents' association's northwestern division. From the left are G. H. Chidester, U. S. Forest Products laboratories pulp and paper division chief, Madison; W. C. Notbohm, assistant executives vice president of Valley Iron Works; and Walter Sherman, assistant manager of the Flambeau Paper division of the Kansas City Star company, Park Falls. Chidester discussed hardwood pulping, Notbohm paper machine design and Sherman employee motivation.

Technical Sessions Close Superintendents' Meeting

Pulping, Machine Design, Worker Motivation Discussed by Experts

Three technical sessions wound up the 2-day fall meeting of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents' association here Saturday. Members heard and discussed hardwood pulping for production. Errors Traced Complaints from customers are traced back through the mill to find who caused the error, Sherman said. A single individual responsible can which make people do things not called in for a discussion. es. Walter Sherman, assistant manager of Flambeau Paper our people is that they should keep the customer at the top of their minds." This is human engineering; and Sherman recommended workers that the firm may giving employees the facts in lose customers, but that the order to obtain the end result desired. Flambeau utilizes piece-work, but does not consider 18 million cords by 1975 and a possible 25 million by 2,000, Chidester said. He added that hardwood use will rise from about 17 per cent of pulping raw material to 28 per cent in the next 42 years.

Wisconsin Use

In Wisconsin, hardwood use has risen spectacularly in the last 20 years—from 38,000 cords in 1937 to 946,000 cords in 1956, Chidester explained. Present use of hardwood makes up about 40 per cent of all pulpwood use in the state, he added.

Biggest rise in hardwood use in Wisconsin occurred after World war II with annual figures showing 400,000 cords used in 1946, 600,000 by 1951 and nearing a million cords now.

Since 1955, use of heavy hardwoods has increased rapidly, Chidester said, indicating an increased utilization of local woods. Aspen accounted for 600,000 cords, but heavier hardwoods rose from 100,000 cords in 1955 to 190,000 cords the next year.

Different Processes

Pulping hardwoods is done with different processes, depending on the paper desired. About 20 per cent of hardwoods are pulped by the soda process and about a third by the semi-chemical process, Chidester said. The sulphate process, he added, seems to be the most versatile. Utility of hardwoods in the soda process is limited by a tendency toward low strength, he explained.

The semi-chemical process can utilize single or mixed hardwood species with a 50 to 90 per cent yield. Pulp from this process is light-colored and can be strengthened with a high-color bleach, he said. The soda process gives an 88 to 92 per cent yield and is promising for heavy hardwoods, the lab chief declared.

Generally, Chidester said, semi-chemical pulping processes require more power than the caustic soda method. Six mills in the U. S., two in Australia and one in Italy use the soda process on hardwoods.

Local Woods

Since some of the heavily used softwoods are not sufficient to meet paper industry demands, Chidester said, the industry is attempting to use more of the available supply.

Existing processes to better pulp hardwoods has been underway for some years, he added. Suggested methods of handling hardwoods include more soluble bases and running higher acidic solutions to produce stronger pulps.

Pulps produced by the latter method have a strength approaching kraft and have a light color when unbleached, he added.

In many pulps, a 10 to 15 per cent mixture of hardwoods can be added without harming the paper strength, Chidester said. For newsprints, the percentage can be higher. Some mills are running an 80 per cent hardwood-20 per cent softwood mixture, he said.

Bleached hardwood pulps are being used for bond paper by application of the sulphate process. Hardwood blends from the semi-chemical process are used in papers from tissue to corrugated board, showing the versatility of hardwoods.

Areas most needing additional research in hardwood use are in the fiber bonding and beating and refining processes, Chidester concluded.

Machine Design

Inlets and headboxes design probably will never become a science, but will remain an art, Willard C. Notbohm, assistant executive vice president of Valley Iron Works, told the superintendents group. He explained that instrument measurement is not possible in these portions of paper machines, thus everything must be done by inspection. He termed the machine operator a vital part of inlet and headbox operation, pointing out that if a machine operator watches that portion of the machine, better operation results.

The function of inlets and headboxes is to maintain suspension of paper stock and to deliver a uniform flow of it to the wire screen of a paper machine.

Multi-Grade Machine

There is no really new design to this part of a paper machine, only variations on a theme, modifications on a basic unit, Notbohm said. When the stock, in suspension, is laid on the screen, the main problem is maintaining an even distribution. Complications arise in mul-

Monday, Sept. 15, 1958 Appleton Post-Crescent A3

Notbohm said, air loading is a valuable tool in maintaining suspension, since it is possible to force uniform displacement in the head box. Many mills' difficulties can be traced to a failure to maintain head box equipment, especially the inlet. If maintainable from an inch upstream to nance is put off until the inlet is corroded, it becomes difficult to change the angle of adjustment has been pro- duct to correct, he said. Notbohm recommended close inspection by machine operators.

In multi-grade machines, the screen must be as versatile as possible because of grade variations, he added. One way this has been done, Notbohm said, is to make the apron blade movable while the machine is in operation. Bottom tain head box equipment, especially the inlet. If maintainable from an inch upstream to nance is put off until the inlet is corroded, it becomes difficult to change the angle of adjustment has been pro- duct to correct, he said. Dulles Holds Strategy Talks for UN Session eastern program that could not be carried through at the emergency session Aug. 8-21. Before he left Washington, Dulles said he would not be surprised if the Russians tried to get the assembly to put on its agenda alleged U.S. aggression in Formosa strait, where the United States is pledged to defend the nationalists on Formosa.

Gromyko Silent
Gromyko made no statement when he arrived with a 14-member delegation. But in a recent letter to President Eisenhower, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had asked whether the U.N. should not forbid any country to send its air or naval fleets to the Far East or elsewhere "for the purpose of blackmail."

Assistant Secretary of State Francis O. Wilcox told a New York audience yesterday: "Each member of the United Nations obviously has a strong interest in the situation in the Taiwan (Formosa) strait area since communist activities there are fraught with danger to all of us and to world peace."

Addressing the American Association for the United Nations, he said he hoped the assembly would make a beginning toward establishing a standby U.N. force ready to meet quickly "a wide range of situations."

Eisenhower's Mideastern speech Aug. 13 called for such a force. Wilcox said the first step should be a "permanent staff in the United Nations secretariat to act as a planning center."

He also said: The assembly should set up a committee to recommend "specific steps the United Nations can take to promote and assure the peaceful use of outer space for the benefit of all mankind."

It ought to "urge the achievement of a meaningful agreement as soon as possible" in Soviet-U.S. talks on suspending nuclear tests. These start in Geneva Oct. 31. He believes the assembly will continue to bar the seating of communist China.

This session has been tagged the outer space assembly because both the United States and Soviet Russia have advanced proposals for control of explorations of outer space for purposes of peace.

mirror after passing, the car had disappeared. She reported the accident.

Funeral arrangements for Pomeranke are being made at Waupaca.

State Accidents
Victims of a 2-car crash in southern Door county were Kenneth M. Grundhoeffer, 31, of Casco, who was riding alone in his sports car; Janice Andre, 18, of Forestville, and Lois Hallada, 16, of Sasco.

Sharon Laurent and Sandra Andre, sister of Janice, were taken to Algoma Memorial hospital in serious condition. Both are 17 and from Casco.

The girls' small English-built auto and the Grundhoeffer car met head-on on Door County Trunk X about 15 miles north of Kewaunee about 5 o'clock Sunday night.

Find Bodies
The bodies of Nick Martinez, 54, and Mrs. Gloria Ortiz, 38, both of Waukegan, Ill., were found Sunday morning when another motorist saw Mrs. Ortiz's daughter, Carmen, 5, wading aimlessly in the Root River.

Racine county deputies said Martinez' car hit four guard posts along Highway 38 before skidding off a bridge over the river, just south of the Milwaukee county line. The widow and the widower were trapped in the submerged wreckage.

Carmen, who apparently was thrown clear before the car sank, was taken to a Cudahy hospital where she was reported in fair condition with a shoulder injury.

Leroy Burmeister, 20, Shawano, was killed early Sunday on Highway 32 about 25 miles north of Green Bay. The auto in which he was riding left the road and overturned.

Mrs. Stella Downs, 56, Cumberland, was injured fatally in a collision west of Cumberland Saturday afternoon. Barron county authorities said Mrs. Downs was a passenger in an auto driven by Mrs. Frieda B. Prell, 65, Cumberland, who was hospitalized with serious injuries.

Otto Bentz, 80, route 1, Cedarburg, died Saturday at a West Bend hospital of injuries suffered a week ago today in a collision on a Washington county trunk road near Jackson.

Atlas Test Successful For 3rd Time

Cape Canaveral, Fla. —(AP)—The air force has successfully fired another Atlas, settling the stage for the first attempt to shoot the missile at intercontinental range.

Atlas, the most powerful war rocket in the free world at present, blasted away early yesterday on another 3,000-mile test of guidance and strength.

The first full range Atlas shot — some 6,325 miles — is expected in the near future.

Test Successful
It was learned that the latest test was highly successful. That made the third straight time that the 100-ton Atlas sent its huge nose cone spinning on target without a hitch.

The 85-foot missile thundered skyward from a huge ball of white flame shortly after midnight, and disappeared in a mass of storm clouds within a minute.

Three engines — twin booster rockets and a sustainer — were blazing as the Atlas rose ponderously aloft. More than 360,000 pounds of thrust is needed to push the bulky war rocket toward the 15,000 m. p.h. speeds necessary for space travel.

The success was good news for Convair Astronautics whose engineers have spent a hectic 14 months developing the missile into an intercontinental range weapon capable of carrying a thermonuclear warhead.

often mysterious movements that it will not long tolerate Gov. Orval Faubus' act, but the agency's spokesmen refused to reveal how the department plans to employ the small army of U. S. marshals it gathered here. Nor would they disclose tactics of the beefed up federal attorney staff.

Another southern state simultaneously closed a high school for the same reason. This was in Warren county, Va., where 17 Negroes sought to enroll.

Simmering Little Rock racial troubles boiled over last Friday when the U. S. Supreme court ruled that Central High could not delay integration as requested by the school board and approved by the Little Rock federal district court.

Within hours, Gov. Faubus ordered Central High and three other city high schools closed even before they opened for the fall term. This includes Horace Mann, an all-Negro institution.

He said he acted because Central High faced forcible integration and he feared violence and disorder would follow.

Federal District Judge John E. Miller of Fort Smith, Ark., delayed pressing court business to fly here yesterday. He said he would be at the courthouse today even though "I have no reason at present to anticipate any legal action in this matter coming before me."

City police authorities cancelled all department vacations and days off and drilled their forces in use of gas guns, gas grenades and sub-machine guns.

The Fashion Story

let's set the record straight

Never before have so many people written so many words about European collections and their influence on our current and future fashions. And never before has confusion reigned so supreme . . . so needlessly!

We are going to add a few more words to these already written — in an effort to separate the wheat from the chaff:

We think we should tell our customers the how, what and why of new Fashions for Fall.

The Time for Indecision Has Passed

We think it is our responsibility to eradicate any inaccurate impressions inferred by the press, radio, television or sundry self-appointed "Experts". These are THE FACTS OF FASHION as they apply to and as they will affect Fall, Holiday, Resort and Spring apparel.

Skirts Are Shorter!

THE RIGHT FASHION LENGTH is about 2" below the kneecap. The House of Dior featured hemlines at 21" on their previous collection — consequently when they dropped them 5", they still remain at 16" from the floor (which is still shorter than most customers are or will be wearing them). Actually the number of "longer" skirts shown on the last Dior collection were NEGLIGIBLE, but because it was the unique and different talking point, that is the one feature played up.

The Eased Free-Form Silhouette Is Here to Stay!

The question is still being bandied "Is the chemise dead?" In our opinion that is not the important point — the important issue is that the INFLUENCE of the chemise carries on. The NEW SILHOUETTES which have emerged from the refinement of the original, extreme "chemise" are the ULTIMATE LOOK — the look which HAD to develop for now . . . for next season . . . for the season after that!

The High Waisted Look

is the prevalent treatment on the import adaptations. Hence we think this is now the MAJOR fashion talking point in silhouette projections. THE HIGH WAISTED LOOK is strongly reflected in Coats and Suits. In Coats . . . it is again a welt seam, a bow, placement of buttons, a yoke . . . frequently the "skirt" of the coat is softly gathered from the high waist demarcation, also seen on modified flared lines stemming from the trapeze. In Suits, a very smart, very new and very high fashion silhouette evolves. Jackets are shorter and frequently the high waist is marked with a bow, seam, very wide belt or buttons . . . BUT . . . the NEW SKIRT is a cross between the "dutch boy" and the slim-line version of the "dirndl" in which a wide fitted waistband is worn above the natural waist with spaced or all-around gathers to form the skirt.

Ear Deep in Collars

Great oversized cape collars shown on both Coats and Suits. This treatment is quite different from the cape collars of the past in that they are so constructed that they actually stand-up and frame the neck and ears, are shaped thru the shoulder line and come to about the elbow (some fringe trims, too) — when the neckline is opened up, the standing collar converts to a deeper cape effect.

Unshy Colors

White . . . Turquoise . . . Lacquer Red . . . Strong Pinks . . . New Greens and New Orange-tones — a range of colors quite different from typical Fall colors and more reminiscent of Resort.

We hope this fashion analysis will be helpful to you in the assembling of your fall and winter wardrobe.

Municipal Debt Trends

There has been some alarmist talk lately about the trend for higher local government debt load in Wisconsin. Taken on their face, the aggregate debt figures are high. At the last accounting, the local governments of the state collectively owed about a half billion dollars in long-term debt. From 1956 to 1957, the total increased 25 per cent.

The reasons easily are visible. Most cities, towns, villages and such independent taxing districts such as school districts have been authorizing mighty sums for capital improvements, ranging from hospitals, courthouses, city halls, police and fire stations, to highways and schools, and especially the latter. The school debt load of the state now amounts to about half of the total. The explosion of the birth rate during the last decade suggests strongly, moreover, that the school debt load will be higher, before it will be reduced significantly.

All of this is perfectly natural. Long-term capital improvements have rarely been financed out of current tax income in Wisconsin local government, taking the state as a whole.

But there will be a grave danger of public misunderstanding, unless we learn to use our comparative figures more carefully. Many of the statistical reports we have seen lately, for example, cite trends in long-term debt on a per capita basis.

This is misleading and irrelevant. Debt is related to financial capacity, and Wisconsin law measures a locality's financial capacity by the valuation of the property tax base to which the debt is fixed. Inflation has swelled the debt figures lately. Inflation has also swelled the property valuations.

The Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance has produced some figures that illustrate the varying effect of the debt showing, depending upon the base that is used for the comparison.

In Outagamie county last year local government debt as a percentage of full value was 3.4 per cent. That was a considerable rise over 1950, for example, but it was a far lesser rise than would have been shown in a per capita comparison.

It is unlikely that in the state as a whole the long-term debt law has yet reached one half of the maximum debt that is permitted, under the admittedly conservative statutory limits governing. These are the significant facts to remember, in a time when some of our boondoggling political leaders would convert local government responsibilities into a state debt, or into an ever mounting and perhaps unmanageable national indebtedness.

Death Penalty Difficult to Enforce

Only four states have limited the punishment for first degree murder to life imprisonment. Those states are Michigan, Minnesota, Rhode Island and Wisconsin.

The other states have laws fixing the punishment at death, but not all of them actually practice it. In Illinois the punishment had long been death by hanging, but in 1929 the law was changed to death by electrocution. Since that time the electric chair in the Cook county jail has been used 64 times, but it has not been used since March, 1953.

The Cook county electric chair has not been idle for lack of murderers. In the 5½ years since March, 1953, there have been 11 men in the Cook county jail convicted of first degree murder. Of the 11 there have been four whose sentences were commuted by the governor, or altered by new trials. One hanged himself in the jail and the six others are still in jail with their cases in various stages of appeal.

The one closest to the chair has been in the jail for over five years. In fact he entered only 11 days after the last electrocution there. His conviction has been upheld by the state supreme court but the execution was stayed by the court of appeals and there it rests.

Evolution

The Red government of East Germany has long charged that many ex-nazis hold prominent positions in the West German government. It has ignored the fact that most of these leaders were at the very least under house arrest during the nazi terror. Now an anti-communist group in West Berlin has published a list of Red officials who were formerly in positions of power in Hitler's gang. They include 29 members of the East German legislature, one of its deputy presidents, the minister of health, the chairman of the research council of the board of ministers, several editors of newspapers published by the communist party, professors heading East German colleges and directors of state-owned industries.

Let no one think for a moment that this means a revival of the Nazi party is taking place in East Germany. Obviously all these officials must be screened and approved by the Reds. But the facts have become embarrassing to Walter Ulrich, head of the communist apparatus in East Germany. He has even dug out one district where practically all the members of the ruling council were former Wehrmacht officials or Nazi party members.

Lip service is about all the Reds will pay to this cleaning out of former nazis. Not only is there the very real change of political faith involved, but it is a fact that practically every German was either a member of some nazi organization during the party's height or in a concentration camp.

But what better background for a life of communist control could a man have than true nazi affiliation? There is the same doctrine of the end justifying the hideous means, the same belief that the state is almighty, the opposition to religion, the exploitation of the baser instincts of the worst types of persons for the purposes of the party. The only basic difference between nazism and communism is the title.

that female characteristics persist all through the animal kingdom: "Take the bovines. The particular kind that is bred for the bull ring produces bulls of extraordinary ferocity and ill will. Cows of this breed are equally malevolent. But why do you suppose cows never appear in the Plaza de Mexico? . . . The crucial reason is that the cows wouldn't be so easily fooled by that red cape — the literal-minded cows would get more directly to the point, go for the toreador and spoil the game."

Long before women appeared in such numbers and with increasing success in the business world, George Santayana remarked that "friends are generally of the same sex, for when men and women agree, it is only in their conclusions; their reasons are always different." Whatever the reasons or results, the conclusion that woman's place is in the home and the home alone is being increasingly dispelled. Mr. Koehler's conclusion that women are good for men in business is a sure sign of the first real capitulation of the male. It may spoil a lot of games but what can a mere man do?

Henry Suburban Is Tax-Ridden Man, as Vacation Figures Show

From The Madisonville, Ky. Messenger

John Henry, the fabulous rail-layer about whom the south used to sing, was "a steel drivin' man," and no doubt about it. Today we have no John Henrys and no Paul Bunyans, either, but we have instead burden-bearing men who are loaded down with taxation.

Tax Foundation, which tries to fend for the downtrodden taxpayer in a combat which is loaded against him, relates the following yarn to indicate just what the average citizen is up against these days, tax-wise:

Henry Suburban leaves out of bed at 7 o'clock of a bright summer's morning. His alarm clock (price, $5, tax, 50 cents isn't needed, for today The Annual Vacation begins. The company where he works (salary, $8,000; federal income tax, $975; state income tax, $116), will not see him again for two whole weeks.

He turns on his radio (price, $30; tax, $1.80), to get the weather reports. He shaves, and, as the new-caster drones: "no federal income tax cut this year," he douses himself with some reviving bay rum (price, 80 cents; tax, 8 cents). He dresses, putting on his Swiss wrist watch (price, $80; tax, $8) and goes to breakfast. Calling to his son (federal income tax exemption, $600) "Rise and shine! We start for Lookout Gulch this morning!", he goes downstairs.

Henry's wife is busy with the electric waffle iron (price, $15; tax, 45 cents). She asks him to unplug the electric coffee pot (price, $25; tax, 75 cents), take the frying pan off the gas stove (price, $225; tax, $6.75), and get the orange juice from the refrigerator (price, $250; tax, $7.50).

After breakfast, Henry telephones (monthly telephone bill $8; tax, 80 cents), the gas company to shut off the gas while he's gone. He calls the garage to see if his car (price, $2,500; tax, $150) is ready. All it needed, says the garageman, was a new battery (price, $20; tax, 96 cents). But the car will be right over.

His wife tells him to load the three suitcases (price, $100; tax, $10). Going out, he barks his shins on the power lawnmower (price, $70; tax, $2.10). Coming back, he grabs his golf clubs (price, $90; tax, $5.40) and disconnects the air conditioner (price, $250; tax, $15).

When everybody is in the car, Henry checks to see if he's got his operator's license (fee: $3), fishing rod (price, $15; tax 90 cents), his checkbook, fountain pen (price, $10; tax, 60 cents), his pipe tobacco (tax 10 cents a pound and matches (tax, 2 cents per 1,000). He lets in the clutch. They're off!

They cross a bridge (toll: 50 cents), take the superhighway, (toll, $1.25) and roll 'til noon. They eat at a roadside restaurant (price, $4.75; tax, 24 cents). Henry dips into his wallet (price, $10; tax, $1) and has the tank filled with 10 gallons of gasoline (tax, 70 cents) and on they go.

Eleven-year-old Miss Suburban (federal exemption, $800), clamors to stop at Shantytown, a highway exhibit, (price, $3; tax, 30 cents). Another stop is made at Groom Falls where Mrs. Henry takes a snap with the 'family camera (price, $40; tax, $2.40).

As the sun sinks slowly in the west, the car makes its first of many motel stops (price, $18; tax, 54 cents). Henry gets out, stretches (no tax), lugs out the bags, then, with shoes off, falls asleep in the 3rd inning of the TV (price $300; tax, $18) baseball game while waiting the call to dinner.

The first (tax) day of Henry's vacation is over.

Early TB Detection Possible in Schools

From The Ohio State Journal

One of the principal reasons health standards are improving so rapidly is the earlier detection of disease. Most adults today remember when children were taken to doctors only after they had become rather seriously ill. Sometimes diseases had made considerable headway by then.

New methods of early detection now are available for both children and adults — and they are saving lives.

One such new method, skin testing to determine presence of tuberculosis, is showing promise of being more effective in detecting TB germs than the better-known and widely used X-ray processes.

Tracking down tuberculosis victims in the schools is not new. The TB society's present policy is to X-ray high school students and school personnel, but not children below high school age.

Considerable merit can be seen in a plan that would

Saloon Most Handsome in State

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of Sept. 20, 1879.

Mr. Lawrence has outdone himself in fitting up his saloon on the south side of the avenue.

It is gorgeous with route ensemble of elegant frescoping, beautiful mirrors, billiard tables, easy chairs, handsomely furnished retiring rooms and agreeable clerks.

It is doubtless the most handsomely fitted up institution in any of the interior towns in the state. It already is receiving a large patronage of the public.

A fine lunch is spread daily.

25 YEARS AGO

Monday, Sept. 11, 1933

Dr. John W. Wilson, superintendent of the Appleton district of the Congregational church, and Dr. H. E. Peabody, pastor of the Congregational church here, were to speak at the Training Institute for Congregational leaders at Wisconsin Dells.

Jack Shapiro, Appleton, was reelected treasurer of the upper Wisconsin council of B'nai B'rith at Manitowoc.

The Rev. F. T. Kelly, chaplain at St. Elizabeth hospital, formerly of Marinette, was the guest speaker at the Holy Name breakfast at St. Joseph hall.

R. W. Wallace won the Class A championship at Butte des Morts golf course when he defeated R. K. Wolter in the final match, 3 and 2. Wolter had entered the finals by defeating V. J. Whalen 4 and 3 and Wallace by defeating Paul Scallon one up on the nineteenth hole.

10 YEARS AGO

Monday, Sept. 13, 1948

State Sen. Gordon A. Bulolz of Appleton was appointed general chairman of the legislative affairs committee of the Wisconsin Bar association.

Under the Capitol Dome

If Catlin Wins He May Be Assembly Speaker

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — Primary election defeats of incumbent legislators this year were somewhat fewer than the state has been led to expect from past balloting.

Ten legislators of varying degrees of prominence and worth, were fatalities in their nomination contests last Tuesday, including a couple of ranking members of the Republican legislative majority that has run things in the capitol for the last generation.

Among the new nominees for legislative office turned up in the vote counts of last Tuesday there will be none of more state-wide interest than the nomination by the Republicans in a divided field in Outagamie county of Mark Catlin, former speaker of the assembly.

If Catlin wins the election in that historically Republican county, it will be hard for him to resist the temptation to run again for the house speakership.

THE CHANCE

There will be a plausible opportunity, Speaker Marotz has retired from politics, making a vacancy.

If another Republican majority in the assembly may be assumed, there is no obvious choice for the speakership to succeed Marotz. The prospects, indeed, are for half a dozen or more hopefuls with a few votes apiece provide for detection of TB in the younger set.

The earlier TB is detected, the sooner the victim can be put on the road to recovery — meaning cure is more certain and hospitalization shortened. Also early detection provides an opportunity for keeping the victim from spreading the infection to others.

Because of progress in detecting and fighting TB, many persons are of the opinion the disease is whipped or that it no longer is deadly. Don't be mistaken — it still is a vicious killer. On this point we quote Dr. O. M. Goodloe, Columbus health commissioner:

"We have it (TB) under better surveillance by means of drugs and treatment. But on two other fronts we still are extremely weak. One is the difficulty in finding those who have the disease, many of whom do not know it themselves, and the other is lack of a medical preventive.

"Unless tuberculosis is brought to treatment . . . it is just as deadly as it was in the days when tuberculosis was called the 'Great White Plague'."

The value of early detection of TB no doubt will be weighed heavily by the school board members in deciding whether the first graders shall be given an opportunity to be examined by medical science's new approach to the disease.

Such a situation would be made to order for Catlin, although his candidacy would be calculated to put Democrats and other political opponents into a fit.

Included among the 10 defeated legislators were Marvin Dillman of Vilas county, who was the chairman of the assembly conservation committee during the last session and won a good deal of state-wide reputation as a result of that rank, and J. Riley Stone, the Sauk county veteran who was chairman of the assembly side of the potent legislative finance committee.

Dillman's retirement will have some of the politicians wondering about the effect of conservation issues in local politics. The Vilas county representative was a cozy defender of the conservation administration during his several terms in office, then abruptly changed his tune a few months ago and took a critical position on some of its policies — including fish management in the resort regions.

MEANING

Dillman was out-campaigned by an old-timer of the state political arena who is evidently interested, in resuming a career that was interrupted nearly 20 years ago. The Republican nominee over Dillman is Paul R. Alfonsi, one-time Progressive party spokesman and speaker of the 1937 legislature as a Progressive. The ever-turning wheel of politics is perhaps illustrated aptly by the fact that Alfonsi will be campaigning against another legislative old-timer, Henry Berquist of Rhineland, also an adherent of the Progressive party in the 1930's, who is now a Democrat.

Legislative competition on the whole is livelier this year and the prospects are for November vote contests of more vigorous order than in many years. Obviously a part of the cause is the generous rate of pay that recent legislatures have authorized. Some of the casualties of the voting, of last week and in November, may wonder ruefully whether they should have made legislative seats so attractive financially.

Other party floorleaders of both parties in the 1957 legislature came through without much difficulty, including Sen. Henry Maier and Assemblyman Robert Huber for the Democrats and Assemblyman Warren Grady for the assembly Republicans.

Sen. Robert Travis of Platteville, the fledgling floorleader of the senate Republicans last year, survived the most critical fight of his political life to date and now may be expected to turn his attention toward a congressional candidacy in the third district where Rep. Gardner Withrow of La Crosse, the Republican incumbent, has said he is running for the last time.

Youths Conduct 85-Cent Drive

Carrollton, Ky. — Nancy Danner, Gereth Lindsey and John McClung went on a fund-raising drive for the new Carroll county memorial hospital.

They turned their money over to the hospital — all 85 cents of it. Nancy, 10, and Gereth and John, both 8, danced and sang in their backyard theatrical production and sold concessions, too.

The money will be used to help buy books and games for a children's room at the hospital.

States Don't Defy Court In Closing Schools

Action Is Within Constitutional Orbit, Columnist Contends

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington — The state of Arkansas has not "defied" the supreme court of the United States by closing the high schools in Little Rock. Nor has the state of Virginia committed any act of "defiance" by closing schools.

The federal government has not "defied" the states of Arkansas and Virginia by supporting plans to let the supreme court sit in session that seek through the courts a its rulings was born in un-morality and ratified in un-morality.

In case after case the supreme court of the United States has always evaded the issue of whether the 14th amendment was constitutionally ratified and has said this is a political question and not within its power to resolve.

Many people are saying all this happened long ago and that it isn't feasible to turn the clock back now. The present supreme court, however, in its 1954 decision, did turn the clock back 58 years and nullified the settled law of the land on the question of equal but separate facilities which had been upheld by some of the most eminent men who ever sat on the high court, including its greatest liberals.

What is settled law? Abraham Lincoln defined it as something that has been initially decided by the supreme court when the issue was first raised, and then affirmed and reaffirmed in decisions for years afterwards. Thus, it is settled law today that no state can be compelled to appropriate money to keep schools open or do any affirmative thing just because the federal government may want to see it done. The settled law on this point was proclaimed in a decision known as Hopkins vs. Clemson college, decided in 1911, when Justice Lamar wrote in behalf of the court:

No Suit

"No suit, therefore, can be maintained against a public officer which seeks to compel him to exercise the state's power of taxation; or to pay out its money in his possession on the state's obligations; or to execute a contract, or to do any affirmative act which affects the state's political or property rights."

There was prophetic vision in a famous dissent by Justice Edward D. White of the supreme court, who later became chief justice, as he wrote:

"Teach the lesson that settled principles may be overthrown at any time, and confusion and turmoil must ultimately result. . . .

"If the permanency of its conclusions is to depend upon the personal opinions of those who, from time to time, may make up its membership, it will inevitably become a theater of political strife, and its action will be without coherence or consistency. . . .

"Break down this belief in judicial continuity, and let it be felt that on great constitutional questions this court is to depart from the settled conclusions of its predecessors, and to determine them all according to the mere opinion of those who temporarily fill its bench, and our constitution will, in my judgment, be bereft of value, and become a most dangerous instrument to the rights and liberties of the people."

That solemn warning was given in 1895, but only last month the same warning came from the chief justices of 36 states, who adopted a report, made after an exhaustive study by a committee of chief justices of the states, in which the recent decisions of the supreme court of the United States were severely criticized, particularly in the expansion of the 14th amendment. The report, approved by the chief justices of three-quarters of the states of the union, said:

"If reasonable certainty and stability do not attach to a written constitution, or is it a sham? These frequent differences of opinion and occasional overrulings of prior decisions in constitutional cases cause us grave concern as to whether individual views as to what is wise or desirable do not unconsciously override a more dispassionate consideration of what is or is not constitutionally warranted."

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge. Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONOID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONOID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONOID's unequalled rebulking action helps re-tone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONOID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon. COLONOID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy. Charges Flying in Catlin-Priebe Race

Democrats Say It's a Plot to Get Their Votes; Republicans Scoff

BY JACK GLASNER
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Amid Democratic party charges that Republicans are scheming to defeat its assembly candidate in the Outagamie county's First district by running an independent, there seems to be a concerted effort by some Republicans to defeat Mark Catlin, Jr., nominated by the GOP Tuesday.

Catlin, who has served seven terms in the assembly and was its speaker, defeated three opponents. His nearest rival, Veteran Appleton Ald. Kenneth Priebe, who trailed by 480 votes, Saturday announced he would run as an independent in November. Catlin today could not be reached for comment.

state senator and long active in Republican politics, today said he is backing Priebe for the assembly seat, but denied heading any kind of a movement within the party.

GOP Answer
Urban Van Susteren, leader of the Outagamie county GOP organization, said the party workers will be supporting Catlin. "Priebe's candidacy helps Catlin because we'll just get out and work harder. When a candidate asks the party for support by inference when running in a Republican primary, he is committed to support the party's candidate in the fall election. Anyone who doesn't do so is not a good Republican," Van Susteren snapped.

Patrick J. Lucey, Democratic state chairman, said Sunday that Republicans were backing Priebe in order to elect Catlin and defeat Dick Zingsheim, Democrat, nominated when he ran unopposed Tuesday. Lucey said Bubolz was leading a movement to set up Priebe to draw votes which otherwise might go to Zingsheim.

Lucey added that if Catlin ran against Zingsheim in a clear field the veteran legislator is likely to be defeated. Most Republicans interviewed here viewed the idea as preposterous, pointing out that the late Fred Frank defeated Albert Kobussen, the Democrat, by a vote of 13,566 to 4,712 in the 1956 race.

Mullen Backs Priebe
Chris Mullen, who ran fourth in the field of four GOP candidates Tuesday, said today he was supporting Priebe and that Harold Froehlich, who ran third, was joining him. Mullen said he and Froehlich had been approached by Bubolz and agreed to work for Priebe's election. Froehlich could not be reached for comment.

Bubolz, Mullen and Priebe

Three Girls, All Born on Sept. 5, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, 1519 W. Commerical street. Because the newest, Julie Ann, was born last Sept. 5, the birthday celebrations for Nancy Jo, 2, left, and Suzanne, 3, were delayed this year. Mr. and Mrs. Hill are shown with the youngsters.

all say they think Republican voters are entitled to vote for another Republican because the combined vote for Catlin's three opponents was greater than Catlin's vote.

Van Susteren pointed out that primaries are to determine party nominees and party members are expected to get behind the man nominated by the voters. He added that the move against Catlin is in contradiction to the Outagamie county GOP tradition of strength through teamwork, and he expects it to fail.

Mullen said his move to support Priebe has nothing to do with the Democrats and offers Republicans who are not satisfied with Catlin a chance to vote for another Republican. He added that the action does not weaken the party.

Priebe said his candidacy was a Republican matter and had nothing to do with the Democrats. "I talked to Zingsheim Saturday and he told me what he thought—I told him he was absolutely wrong, there was no scheme by Republicans to draw votes from him by my running in November," Priebe declared. Priebe added that his independent candidacy was his personal decision, that he had not talked to any GOP organization members and that the people who worked for his election were in agreement with his decision.

Zingsheim Saturday, after learning of Priebe's decision, said it was an obvious move to steal votes from him. "I stood to pick up those anti-Catlin votes and now the Republicans have put in an independent to take them away from me," Zingsheim declared. He claimed that he was certain that the GOP organization had rigged the Priebe candidacy.

Mrs. William Cherkasky, Democratic organization chief, could not be reached for comment.

Pasek Angry
Leonard Pasek, secretary-treasurer of Catlin's campaign committee, said "What kind of people are these? They use the Republican party to advance their own candidacy during the primary, and now turn right around and attempt to destroy that party by causing the kind of open split that leads to victory for Republican opposition."

"To refresh our memories, look at what happened to Republicans a year ago in the special senatorial election when precisely this kind of disloyalty beat us," Pasek angrily declared.

"Outagamie county Republicans cannot afford to be disgraced by this proposed action, which means, in effect, divided we lose," Hackbarth declared.

Mrs. John Stevens, vice chairman of the GOP, said the Priebe candidacy was a "slap in the face to every Outagamie county Republican."

Lucey admitted that in several instances favored Democratic candidates were defeated in the primary elections, and now are threatening to file as independents. One of them is Alfred Lauby, assemblyman from the Langlade, Forest and Florence county district.

Without a formal vote, most members of the party committee indicate support of Lucey's position that partisans should support their primary election nominees.

Pope Reiterates Church Stand On Sterilization

Immoral if Done to Prevent Children, Pontiff Declares

Vatican City — Pope Pius XII, in a broad outline of the Roman Catholic church's stand on the subjects, says artificial insemination to produce child-birth or sterilization directly to prevent it are not moral.

The 82-year-old pontiff addressed an international congress of hematologists, or blood specialists, Friday at his Castel Gandolfo summer residence. The text of his address, part of it replies to direct questions asked by the doctors, was released today by the Vatican press office.

The pontiff recalled that as long ago as Sept. 29, 1949, when he addressed Catholic doctors, he spoke against artificial insemination for married couples.

"This practice," he said, "is not included in the rights of married persons and is contrary to the natural law and Catholic morality."

The solution for childlessness by "voluntary adultery," he added, is condemned by itself. "No spouse can place conjugal rights at the disposal of a third person."

Distinguishes Types

Sterilization, directly performed to make procreation impossible, "is a grave violation of the moral law and is, therefore, illicit," he said.

The pontiff distinguished, however, between an action directly performed to produce sterilization and another — such as removal of diseased ovaries — in which an unwanted consequence might be

Fairmont Workers in Teamster Unions Will Vote This Week

Contract offers to break the 3-month deadlock between Fairmont Foods company and the Teamsters will be up for union membership votes this week in this area.

Green Bay members vote tonight, Appleton members at a special meeting to be called and Escanaba and Stevens Point members at times to be set. Officials have refused to comment, but it is apparent union negotiators are not recommending the contract.

The company released today details of the offer to the union. Jerry Cayen, Fairmont's Appleton manager, sterilization. The latter, said the pope, is permissible.

Likewise, he said, use of pills by a woman to check uterine ailments is permissible if not done with the intent to prevent impregnation even though that may be a temporary result of it.

"But," he added, "one provokes a direct sterilization and therefore illicit, when one stops ovulation for the purpose of preserving the uterus and the organism from the consequences of a pregnancy which it is not able to support."

Married couples in danger of transmitting hereditary defects could have recourse to adopting children, the pope said.

"One sees everywhere," he said, "that this advice is generally followed by happy results and brings parents happiness, peace and serenity. From the religious point of view, adoption presents no objections."

Injured in Fall

Mrs. F. A. W. Hammond, 625 W. Prospect avenue, fractured several ribs in a fall at her home Sunday and is recovering today at Appleton Memorial hospital. She is expected to remain in the hospital for several days, her family said.

said the company's offers include a 10-cent hourly boost to all hourly employees and increases from $10 to $18 weekly-for-route salesmen.

No Union Comment

Robert Schlieve, Teamster Local 563 business agent, said today that he would not comment on the company's statement of contract offers until he could present the complete story to his membership, all route salesmen. Schlieve said there were contingencies in the company's offer which did not make it as attractive as it might sound, but declined to comment further until the membership has seen the offer.

Cayen said the company's offer would mean route salesmen's wages ranging from $90 to $235 weekly. The offer maintains all working conditions with a number of improvements, he said, declining to elaborate.

Cayen said the company had offered the Teamsters a 5-day work week, one of the prime union negotiating points.

Auto Strikes Pump At Service Station; Causes Gasoline Fire

Firemen Sunday night put out a fire inside a service station pump which was snapped from its foundation by a backing automobile.

Firemen said the automobile, driven by Thomas Ernst, 1933 N. Clark street, struck the pump of Clark Oil and Refining corporation, 134 N. Richmond street, and evidently caused a spark, setting off the fire.

The fire burned only at the open end of a broken off pipe, Walter Johnson, station manager, reported. Johnson placed the damage at more than $400.

A burning wire at N. Badger avenue and W. Harris street was reported about 4:25 Sunday afternoon and the trouble message relayed to Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

Employees Vote Against Union

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

The firms involved are the Esler-Appleton Hotel corporation and the Verbrick-Esler Amusement, Inc., of Appleton. The votes were held Aug. 26 and showed majorities against such agreements with Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union Local No. 414, AFL-CIO.

Shortcut to Reducing

To cut calories, many reducers skip breakfast. And therein lies one of the great dieting errors.

A breakfast-skipper gets so hungry she nibbles during the morning or goes overboard at lunch. Meantime, she loses nothing but her vigor, efficiency and good disposition. Admirers would rather see her roly-poly than so droopy and grumpy.

Should the above hit home, to hear this: you can drop two pounds weekly without the unattractive side effects by dry cereal with one-half cup limiting your daily count to 1200 calories and using between 250 and 300 of them on breakfast. Study this calorie counter of breakfast foods tute.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm getting married next month to a very nice fellow. He went steady with a girl I knew a few years back. When they were going together she knew I was crazy about him and rubbed it in plenty.

Weather Takes Cooler Turn

High Winds Cause Power Failure in Appleton Sunday

Partly cloudy and cooler weather took over in the Fox Cities today after a sunny and windy Sunday.

Gusts of wind over 35 miles an hour Sunday whipped tree branches into electric wires at various locations in Appleton, causing wires to come together and disrupt service.

A power outage near the Mason street substation interrupted service to about 200 customers about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The line was restored in sections, with the last customers getting power again about 5:15, according to the Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

Crews are continuing to patrol the line today and are increasing clearance between wires and branches.

Three branches also shorted service wires near Badger avenue and W. Harris street, interrupting service to about 15 customers for an hour and a half. A pole-top transformer in the town of Menasha was burned out due to a short caused by the whipping tree branches.

High of 81

Appleton had a high of 81 degrees Sunday, followed by an overnight low of 67. The temperature at 11:15 this morning was 68, with the wind from the south at eight miles an hour and the barometer at 29.85 inches. Precipitation up to midnight Sunday was .01 of an inch.

Elsewhere in the state, showers were general Sunday, Wednesday is partly cloudy with Grantsburg getting 1.46 inches. The weather began to clear this morning in much of Wisconsin.

The early forecast calls for mostly fair and a little cooler this afternoon and tonight. Tuesday will be fair to partly cloudy and cooler, with showers likely in the south portion Tuesday afternoon or evening. Low tonight in the mid 40s northwest and upper 50s southeast. The outlook for Wednesday is partly cloudy with three to six degrees below normal. The normal high is from 65 to 75 and the normal low from 46 to 55.

New Candor Seems To Pervade Land

Ike, Dulles No Longer Offering Soft Soap Complacency to U. S.

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE

Washington — One of the most significant changes in the Washington atmosphere since Dwight D. Eisenhower came to power in 1953 is now unfolding. Both the president and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles are speaking in increasingly candid terms of the enormous world problems that so long have confronted us. And if candor is the beginning of wisdom, then this administration's foreign policy is becoming far more nearly wise, however sticky the situation in the Far East may be or may become.

For five and a half years the president and Mr. Dulles have addressed this country and the world largely in soothing terms. Their settlement of the Korean war gave the communists an entrenched position along our security line in the western Pacific.

But to that part of public opinion which was more interested in any peace than in power, the administration presented the Korean arrangement as a triumph for peace. And to that public opinion which believes peace can only follow power, the administration represented its partial surrender as a tough and practical conclusion.

Change Begins
The change in tone here — and its importance could hardly be overstated — seems to have begun in the most recent crisis in the Middle East. There, the president stepped in with a boldness and decisiveness unexampled for him in sending the marines and paratroopers to Lebanon.

Now, as in his address to the country last week, he is talking in a way that his administration was never quite willing to talk before.

He is saying that while he will not fight for the little off-shore islands — Quemoy and so on — as such, he will certainly fight for them if the Chinese communists assault them as stations to larger aggressions.

Moreover, and this is the key to the whole point, the president has obviously recognized that what he is doing is not popular even in this country — but only necessary in a responsible leader.

This new kind of look is even more evident in Secy. Dulles. Mr. Dulles has publicly faced up to two harsh realities — and whatever his actions of the past he has faced up to them like a man.

Out of Step
One of these realities is that our allies are absolutely out of step with us in our Far East policy and will not go along with us if we get into serious trouble out there. The second truth Mr. Dulles is now acknowledging without shelter behind legalisms must have been hardest of all to accept in an administration that has so persistently relied on public relations techniques.

Hospital Marks 50th Anniversary With Open House

Theda Clark Board Selects Sept. 28 for Tour by Public

Neenah — Theda Clark Memorial hospital will have its first community-wide open house in 10 years on Sunday, Sept. 28, in commemoration of a half century of service to Neenah and Menasha and the surrounding area.

The hours of the open house are from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 to 8 o'clock in the evening.

Approximately 10,000 copies of a special hospital news bulletin, which includes the annual report of operations, were placed in the mail today. Each carries an invitation to the open house.

The bulletin, a newsletter about hospital and staff activities and services, has been published since 1949. With this special issue, an expanded mailing list will make it possible for more Twin City residents to become acquainted with hospital activities.

Chartered in 1908

The open house also marks the fiftieth anniversary of the granting of the charter and the laying of the cornerstone of Theda Clark Memorial hospital.

A hospital was a rare thing 50 years ago for a community the size of Neenah and Menasha. Combined population was then about 11,815. When the hospital opened there were 20 beds for patients with two nurses in charge.

Today, the combined population of the two cities is estimated at more than 40,000. The hospital has 164 beds and its nursing staff totals 150. There are 28 people employed in housekeeping, 20 in special diagnostic and therapeutic services, 48 in the dietary department, 12 in the laundry, six each in building-ground maintenance and

The school will contain 19 classrooms, laboratories for physics, biology, chemistry and home economics, a craft and audio-visuals room, library, gymnasium, chapel, band and choral rooms and typing, bookkeeping and office practice rooms.

Preliminary estimates on the building cost and equipment were $1,250,000. The contractor announced he plans to move his equipment in soon. He recently completed Premont High school at Green Bay and the Norbertine abbey at West De Pere.

Workmen Begin Remodeling of Bergstrom for Future Museum

Expect Opening Late This Year; Costs $10,000

Neenah — Workmen are remodeling the future John Nelson Bergstrom art center and museum, in preparation for its opening late this year.

A $10,000 remodeling permit for the job was issued Friday to Fluor Brothers Construction company of Neenah. A spokesman said today that the job should be finished by mid-November.

No structural changes are planned in the building at 165 N. Park avenue. The work mainly involves alterations in the wiring and heating systems, and the installation of cabinets and show cases.

The building is the former home of Bergstrom, co-founder of the Bergstrom Paper company, who died in 1951, and his widow, who died last Feb. 13. Bergstrom left $50,000 to the city when he died with the provision that a museum be undertaken within two years after his widow's death.

Mrs. Bergstrom deeded the building to the city in 1953 and left $100,000 to the Neenah Municipal museum foundation in her will. The foundation was also to receive one-third of the residue of the estate after $81,000 in bequests are distributed. The total estate has been estimated at about $500,000.

Between 40 and 50 per cent of the main floor of the home will be used for museum purposes when the building is opened to the public. The rest, including the second floor, may be opened later if the museum proves popular enough to warrant the additional expense.

The beginning clothing class is primarily for women who want to make clothes for children from one to eight years of age.

Geisler to Talk to Personnel Group

Neenah — Twin City Personnel association will begin its season with a dinner meeting at 5:30 Monday afternoon, Sept. 22, at the Valley home to the city in 1953 and left $100,000 to the Neenah Municipal museum foundation in her will. The foundation was also to receive one-third of the residue of the estate after $81,000 in bequests are distributed. The total estate has been estimated at about $500,000.

Between 40 and 50 per cent of the main floor of the home will be used for museum purposes when the building is opened to the public. The rest, including the second floor, may be opened later if the museum proves popular enough to warrant the additional expense.

Library Book Probes Woman's Soul in Search of Maturity

Menasha — The fiction of Rose Franken has been consistently popular at the Elissa D. Smith Public library. Those who read her "Clauudia" stories will find her new novel, "The Antic Years", equally beguiling, according to Librarian Marvin Melick.

The book is a penetrating study of a woman's soul in search of maturity. Sally Jay is a modern American girl next door, the girl every woman is a little afraid of and the girl every man is a little in love with.

She's also the girl who goes to Paris to discover about life and love — and almost does. Elaine Dundy's "The Dud Avocado" tells what happens to Sally Jay.

Other new fiction this week includes George Byram's "The Piper's Tune", a story about doctors; Vicki Baum's "Theme For Ballet" and William Coleman's "The Southern Lady", a psychological thriller.

Book On Economy Climbing fast on the best seller list of non-fiction is John Galbraith's "The Affluent Society," in which the economist closely scrutinizes current ideas and attitudes in economics. Galbraith points out we are impelled to invest too much in things and not enough in people.

K-C Employes Carry on War Against Beaver in Woodlands

Neenah — The hot, fighting war the woodlands men carry on against the dam building of beavers, particularly in the upper peninsula of Michigan where part of Kimberly-Clark's lake states holdings are located, is told in the latest edition of "Cooperation," the company's employee magazine.

Some 100,000 cords of pulpwood for the Kimberly-Clark mills and 15 million board feet of hardwood and pine for its Marenisco, Mich., sawmill are harvested annually in District 4 which comprises the counties of Houghton, Baraga, Keweenaw and the northwest part of Marquette.

The magazine points out timber cruising, selective logging and tree planting are among the forest management programs carried out winter and summer by the woodlands crews.

The "war" goes on because the beaver builds dams which may flood logging roads and up to 100 acres of land. This accounts for much timber being destroyed, including young, growing trees.

Beavers use almost all of the trees they fell. The animal eats the bark and breaks up the tree, using some of it to build a home and some to form foundations for dams it is always constructing. Woodlands crews fight the war with dynamite by blowing up the dams.

The beavers never stop, however. They just plug up the holes in the dam or start a new one. They appear just as uninterested in the woodlands operations of Kimberly-Clark foresters as they are persistent in their own.

Wednesday's session will get underway at 8 o'clock and will be held at the Recreation building. Woelffer, elected president at a recent meeting of the directors, succeeds Laurence Kitchin. Other new officers are Dwight Plucker, vice president, and Jim Crust, secretary-treasurer. Woelffer moves up from secretary - treasurer and Jim Meyer is the retiring vice president.

Art Jackson was named to head the membership drive and the directors voted to reduce the membership fee from $2 to $1.

Hospital at Neenah Sets Open House

The special anniversary bulletin not only serves as an invitation to the open house but includes a recognition of the developments which made Theda Clark hospital a reality.

Throughout the historical account of the hospital's 50 years, the bulletin pays tribute to the late C. B. Clark "who believed in a hospital's importance to a community so much that it was through him that it became a reality. He provided both a philosophy and the means to translate that philosophy into bricks and mortar and service."

The first hospital opened its doors in 1909. When Clark and the trustees reviewed the first full year of operation, they had some reason to doubt that their hospital community project had been a wise choice, that the money left by Theda Clark Peters for such a project had been well spent. There had been fewer than five patients a day, on an average. The year's total was only 196 and 11 babies were born there that first year.

Today the hospital averages 152 patients a day and its annual inpatient and outpatient load is over 12,000. During the last year 1,064 babies were born at the hospital, nearly 100 times the number during the first year the hospital existed.

The anniversary open house Sept. 28 will acquaint visitors with the behind-the-scenes view of hospital operations, and of the equipment and services which the hospital today offers.

Hospital Directors Elect New Secretary LeRoy Reiser, New Holstein, to Succeed Retiring F. J. Flanagan

Chilton — LeRoy Reiser, New Holstein, was elected secretary of the Calumet Memorial hospital board of directors at a special meeting of the board last week.

Reelected to their former posts on the hospital board were Gordon F. J. Flanagan, Aebischer, president, Mrs. Herbert Schoen, vice president, and Arthur W. Hugo, treasurer.

The election of board officers which was not scheduled until Sept. 23, brought the retirement of F. J. Flanagan as secretary.

The election, for the first time in Calumet Memorial's history, gave the board a secretary from its own body. It also reduced to a scant majority the number of the original members now serving on the hospital board.

In accordance with hospital by-laws, the secretary may be elected by the board from its own 15-member group, or may be elected by the board from anyone holding membership in the hospital association.

Gardner, 22, route 2, Menasha, were damaged in an accident on County Trunk P in the town of Agan as secretary of the hospital board, Flanagan was requested to serve as its secretary. With the retirement of Flanagan as secretary of the hospital board, and the request of William J. McHale not to east and Cummings was made considered as a candidate for reelection to the board when the vehicles collided this year, the original mem-

List Steps To Remove Ink Stains

Oshkosh — If a fabric is washable, the safest first step for removing ink stains, except those from ball point pens, is to soak the stained fabric in cool water. Allow it to soak for at least 30 minutes, then rub with soap or synthetic detergent and wash in warm suds.

If a stain remains, a chlorine bleach may be used on all fabrics except wool, silk, vicara and those with special finishes. Use sodium perborate or a perborate bleach, one to two tablespoons with a cup of very hot water, on fabrics with special finishes, suggests Miss Lois Klusmeyer, county home agent. On wool, silk and vicara, sponge with cool water until no more ink can be removed. Then try sponging with an ammonia solution, one tablespoon to one cup of water.

If this fails to remove the ink, sprinkle a non-precipitating water-softener over the stain and cover with a pad of wet cotton for an hour or more, then rinse. If traces of the color still remain, apply a few drops of hot solution of commercial color remover and rinse immediately. Treat traces of yellow as a rust stain.

Most ink stains caused by ball point pens can be removed completely by repeated sponging with acetone. Do not use acetone on acetate, arnel or dnyel fabrics because it will dissolve them.

Pay Attention to Broker's Words, Suggestions, Investment Club Told

BY WILLIAM A. DOYLE
Q. I belong to an investment club. Each of the five members puts up $100 every three months. We invest that amount, plus all dividends from our stock. We now hold 52 shares of Columbia Broadcasting System class B stock, 40 North American Aviation, 51 National Distillers and Chemical, 32 Champlin Oil and Refining, 22 Combustion Engineering, 12 Bethlehem Steel, 27 American Cyanamid and 50 Sperry Rand. If we sold now, we would just about break even. Do we have too many stocks? The broker who advises us says yes. He would like to see us buy more.

Champlin Oil or Combustion Engineering next time. Should we diversify further or follow the broker's advice?

A. Why do you bother with a broker if you're not going to follow his suggestions? He probably feels that you five aren't working hard enough at the job of running an investment club — that you're not really studying the market, following the stocks you own and investigating others for possible future purchases.

Apply Selves

I can't think of any other reason for telling five people to concentrate on no more than eight stocks. If you all put your minds to it you should certainly be able to manage a much more diversified portfolio.

Many investment clubs have turned a handsome profit because their members were willing to apply themselves to their assigned task. These are the ones that brokers enjoy working with.

Think it over. Does your broker seem unhappy with you people?

Q. I have some shares of American Radiator. I haven't seen it listed for a while now. What's happened to it?

A. Not much. The full name of this outfit is American Radiator and Standard Sanitary corporation. You'll admit that's a mouthful. The company, in the interest of simplification, asked that it be called American Standard in stock market reports, tables and such. The newspapers and wire services went along with the idea.

The trouble is the official corporate name hasn't been changed. The result has been quite a bit of confusion. The company tried to clear this up by sending letters explaining it to all stockholders. You evidently didn't read yours.

Wants Glamour

Q. I am a bachelor, 10 years from retirement. I have a fine job, ample additional income from a trust fund and will receive a good pension. I will shortly come into some $50,000 in cash which I wish to invest. Perhaps I sound like "the baby crying for the lovely moon," but I have searched for the "perfect stock." I want safety from dollar roiling, growth and glamour in a stock with a small number of outstanding shares. Dividends aren't important.

I have picked McIntyre Porcupine Mines. This is not only a gold mining company but also has an impressive investment portfolio, with steel and other interests. What do you think?

A. I think, in fact I know, that "perfect stocks" just don't exist. There is always some risk. Anyone who bought McIntyre when it was selling at 120 or better last year will give you that sad news. In your financial position, however, you can afford to take a chance. But you would be making a mistake by going off the deep end with all $50,000 in this one stock.

McIntyre's earnings record doesn't add much luster to its "growth and glamour." The price action of the stock is a different thing. The stock is clearly selling on its potential. There's no doubt that the potential is there. Whether or not it will be fulfilled is another thing.

George Howden Will Speak on Development
George A. Howden, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce industrial development committee, will speak on "A Program of Industrial Development for Appleton" when the Appleton Personnel association meets at 6:30 Thursday evening at the Club Terrace.
He also is president of the Industrial corporation and a member of the governor's

Group Plans Tour of Plant, Highway Work
Members of the Appleton and Northside Kiwanis clubs as well as city and county officials will tour the hot-mix bituminous plant and observe paving operations on N. Richmond street Tuesday.
The group will meet at 10:30 in the morning at the city hall and will proceed to the plant. From there they will go to the highway where representatives of Courtney and Plummer, Inc., paving contractors, will explain the work.
Afterward a luncheon will be held at the Hotel Appleton during which Edward J. Konkol, Madison, executive vice president of the Wisconsin Bituminous Paving association will speak.

Bucs Gain on Milwaukee, Refuse to Walk The Plank

Pirates Grab Twin Bill From Cubs

By The Associated Press
The Pirates simply refuse to walk the plank. Six down with only nine games to play, Pittsburgh will not concede to the Milwaukee Braves.
Bob Friend, top winner in the National league, posted his twenty-first victory for Pittsburgh Sunday in the second game against Chicago, 6-2, after Ted Kluszewski's sacrifice fly had won the first game, 5-4.
Milwaukee lost to Los Angeles, 5-3. As a result the Braves' lead was cut to six games. The Braves, who have 11 to play, still need any combination of five victories or Pittsburgh defeats to nail down those Series checks.
Homers Twice
Joe Cunningham, filling in for Stan Musial at first base, hit two home runs against Philadelphia as St. Louis racked up a 6-3 decision from Sam Jones. The strikeout leader of the majors fanned six, boosting his season total to 212 while winning his thirteenth.
Willie Mays came to life in the second game at Cincinnati with a double and three singles in San Francisco's second-game 6-4 victory. Bob Purkey won his 17th for Cincinnati in the opener 4-3.
Richie Ashburn of the Phils boosted his average to .342 with three hits in five trips against the Cards to widen his lead over Stan Musial in the National league batting race.
Friend went all the way for the Pirates in their second, game with the Cubs, pitching a 6-hitter. Bill Mazeroski set a Pirate record for homers by a second baseman with 19 and Bob Skinner lashed No. 13.
"Chuck" Tanner's 3-run homer helped the Cubs tie the first game in the fifth inning but Kluszewski's sacrifice fly after a single by Frank Thomas, a double by Dick Groat and a walk to Bill Hall won the game in the sixth.
Jones needed help in the ninth at Philadelphia, where: Chuck Stobbs came in with the bases loaded. Jim Brosnan finally shut off the threat. Despite the hitting of Ashburn and rookie Pancho Herrera, who had four hits, Jack Sanford dropped his 13th.
Purkey allowed 10 hits while beating the Giants in the first game, blanking Mays in five trips. Willie got even in the second with four hits and Orlando Cepeda added three to whip Don Newcombe. Ramon Montant was the winner with aid from Marv Grissom and Mike McCormick.

Don Strutz, Appleton Butte des Morts golfing star, won the Adler Brau tournament for the first time Sunday. Strutz shot a weekend total of 145 to beat runnerup Al Baerenwald by three strokes.

Strutz Shoots 145, Wins Adler Crown

Runnerup Baerenwald 3 Shots Back in 2nd Annual Tournament

Don Strutz, who accumulates golf awards with the avidity some persons devote to collections of stamps, old coins or butterflies, acquired a bright new trophy Sunday. The Butte des Morts sharpshooter, who only recently discarded the bandages from an injured hand, won the second annual Adler Brau tournament crown with a 1-over-par 145.
Baerenwald Second
With his dazzling, 3-under-par 69 Saturday and his 76 Sunday, Strutz beat out runnerup Al Baerenwald by three strokes and succeeded "Syl" Bayer as tourney ruler.
Behind Baerenwald's 148 came Oshkosh's Hank Felker (last year's runnerup), with a 149; and Appleton's Don Sprague and Sherman Heidem, with 151 and 152, respectively. Sprague shot a second-round 73 — the best score in Sunday's windy going.
Saturday, Strutz shot an outgoing 34 (on two birdies, and seven pars) and an incoming 35 (four pars, three birds and two bogeys). Sunday, Don posted a 37 and a 39.
Strutz' previous tourney wins include those in the 1956 and 1957 Fox Cities Amateurs, 1957 BDM club tourney, the 1954 Northeastern Amateur, the 1947 Appleton city meet, the 1949 Midwest collegiate conference meet and the 1946 state college tourney.
The Strutz family took a leaf from the book of Appleton's golfing Bayers, as it claimed half of the 1958 Adler flight titles. Don's brother, Turn to Page 3, Col. 8

Jackson — Mrs. Jackie Pung fired one of the best rounds of the $5,000 Jackson Ladies Open Golf tournament Sunday to come from fifth place and win the year's final in the LPGA circuit.
Her final round of 70—four under par—gave the veteran from Honolulu her first major victory of the women's tour.
Her 75-75-70—220 card was worth $831.25 in the 54 hole play. fullback Dick Helwig scored from the Colonial Country club 6,700-yard course.
Runnerup Mickey Wright won $641.25.
Mrs. Marlene Bauer Hagg of Pittsburgh took the No. 3 spot after soaring to a 77 in the final round.

Dodgers Win 14th of Year From Braves

Milwaukee — The Braves no longer can clinch the National league pennant on the current home stand, ending Tuesday night.
They erased the possibility of a Tuesday night clinching party by dropping a 5-3 decision to the Los Angeles Dodgers at County stadium Sunday, with a crowd of 39,502 in the stands.
Now the earliest possible clinching date is Wednesday night in St. Louis.
Lead By Six
Since the persistent Pirates took a pair from the Cubs Sunday, the magic number remains five, meaning any combination of Milwaukee victories or Pittsburgh defeats totaling five. The Braves' lead is six games.
To assure their second straight flag by Wednesday night the Braves must win their next three games, including the opener against the Cards, and the Pirates must lose two.
Pittsburgh plays St. Louis twice on Tuesday; a suspended game in which the Pirates hold a lead and a regularly-scheduled game.
"Now you know why I won't talk pennant until we've actually clinched it," said Braves' Manager Fred Haney Sunday as the word of the Pirate sweep came to him. "Anyone who does it a fool."
The fifth-place Dodgers, now 14 and 7 against the Braves this year, pushed over three unearned runs in the seventh inning off Juan Pizarro for their latest victory.
Shortstop Johnny Logan's thirty-first error of the campaign on a double play ball off the bat of Gil Hodges opened the gates. Ron Fairly, Macs, 9-6, in the third and fifth game of a playoff series scored on Don Zimmer's single to center. A fine peg by Billy Bruton cut down Hodges trying to go to third, but Don Demeter golfed a low, inside

Little Chute — Little Chute. Kimberly won the Fox River Valley league championship by downing the Menasha Macs, 9-6, in the third and fifth game of a playoff series Sunday afternoon.
The Papermakers clamped down on a Mac uprising in the last two innings after Al Harke had breezed through the first seven frames with a 2-hitter.
Batters' Day
With the high wind and wide open spaces of American Legion park the batters had a field day — clouting a total of five homers, two triples, a double and 15 singles. The Macs got three of the homers.
Carl Springer rocked one into the right field bleachers in the second to give the losers a brief lead. "Bud" Koehnke sent one to center in the eighth and Ken Koneczko poled one to left with a man aboard in the ninth.
For the Papermakers, Hank Peerenboom hit a 2-run blast in the third and Clair Bolwerk smashed one over 400 feet to left in the eighth.
Springer's homer gave the Macs a 1-0 lead in the second but LC-K came back with two in its half of the frame and never trailed. Ron Weigman singled home Rog Vander Wist with the first run and Weigman stole second and scored on an error.
The Papermakers put together five hits and scored four times in the third to take a 6-1 lead. Vander Wist tripled home Tom Vander Pas with a long poke which bounced off the top of the right field fence. Vander Wist scored when Gene Peerenboom singled and Gene's brother Hank followed with his homer.
Weigman Singles
One run crossed the plate in the fifth for LC-K when Weigman collected his third single, stole second and romped home on Harke's grounder through the box.
Weigman reached first on an error in the seventh and was sacrificed to second by Jim Kilsdonk. Vander Pas sent Weigman home with a liner to right. Bolwerk's homer in the eighth ended the Papermaker scoring.
Harke had the Macs eating out of his hand for the first seven frames. The only run was Springer's homer and the only other hit was a single by Springer in the fourth.
However, the Menashans scored three times after two were out in the eighth. Koehnke started it out with his homer and Dick Frank

Braves to Accept Orders for World Series Tickets Thursday

Milwaukee — The world champion Milwaukee Braves will start accepting applications for World Series tickets Thursday.
If the Braves win their second straight National league pennant, the first two games of the series will be played in County stadium Oct. 1 and 2.
Then the series shifts to New York city. If the sixth and seventh games of the series are necessary, the club would return to Milwaukee Oct. 8 and 9.
The Braves said World Series tickets for all games in Milwaukee will be sold by mail, including standing room. Season ticket holders will be notified directly by the ticket office as to how to order their tickets.
Prices are the same as last year — $28 for a 4-game set of reserved grandstand seats, $8 for bleacher seats and $4 for a single standing room ticket. No box seats are available because of baseball and press commitments.
The club said any application postmarked prior to Sept. 18 will be returned.

Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, Appearing headless at left, follows through with a left against ducking Eddie Machen in the opening round of a scheduled 10-round in Goteborg, Sweden Sunday. Johansson knocked out Machen in the first round.

'We Looked Lousy' McLean Says of Loss to Redskins

Packers Drop Exhibition, 23-14; Big Cut in Roster Due Today

Green Bay — The Green Bay Packers' 23-14 loss to the Washington Redskins in last Saturday night's football exhibition may have been the failing exam for seven players who will be cut from the 45-man squad today.
"We're through testing players," said head coach Vince Lombardi after re-signing McLean Sunday after re-signing from Winston-Salem, N. C., site of the National Football league exhibition.
McLean said, "Giving a lot of players a chance has put us a little behind schedule."
He said, "We'll go with the best now and work them as a solid unit against the Cardinals next Sunday."
The Packers meet the Chicago team in an exhibition game Sept. 21 at Minneapolis.
McLean wouldn't single out any player for criticism concerning the Packers' loss in North Carolina, but he did say, "We looked lousy!"
The Packers got past mid-field only twice during the entire game.
They scored in the second period after Washington had a 14-0 lead. A pass interference penalty against Washington helped set up a 9-yard scoring pass from Bart Starr to end Bill Howton.
Another Break
Another break helped the Packers in the third period. Passer Rudy Bukich of the Redskins was hit hard and tumbled the ball, which bounced a long way to the Redskins' 4-yard line where a pack of Packers pounced on the ball.
Rookie Jim Shanley from Oregon scored from the four. A sprint of 30 yards by Shanley was the longest run of the game.
McLean said, "He's got great balance. He diagnoses plays, follows blockers and cuts very well."
The Green Bay coach also praised the Packers' defense which he credited with keeping the game from becoming a rout.

Johansson KO's Machen In 1st Round

Return Bout With Ed Stands Between Swede and Patterson

Goteborg, Sweden — Ingemar Johansson still had one large obstacle in his way today in his march toward a world heavyweight championship bout with Floyd Patterson.
That was a return match contract with Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif. Whether Machen would be willing to step aside if Johansson is matched with Patterson remains to be seen.
Would Be Willing
Johansson knocked Machen out in 2.16 of the first round of a scheduled 10-round Sunday and in the process shocked the boxing world.
"I have nothing against meeting Patterson whenever he decides," said Johansson. "And I would also like to give Machen a chance for a return bout in the U.S. if he wishes."
Johansson also is the European champion and added that he'd be perfectly willing to defend that title.
"But it is better to meet a top boxer and perhaps be defeated," he commented obviously referring to Patterson.

Report Hemus Will be Next Pilot of Cards

St. Louis — The Globe-Democrat said today Solly Hemus, former St. Louis infielder traded to Philadelphia two years ago, has the inside track to succeed Fred Hutchinson as manager of the Cardinals.
The newspaper said the Cardinals have contacted Hemus and that the little Texan, a favorite of Cardinal President August Busch, probably will be appointed manager Sept. 28, the day the season ends.
The story was denied by Bing Devine, the Cardinal general manager.
Devine said he could not talk about Hemus since he is an active player under contract with the Phils.
Milwaukee — Norm Nelson of Racine, won the 250-mile stock car race sponsored by the United States Auto club Sunday. He drove a 1958 Mercury. His share of the $17,250 purse was $3,675. Nelson's average speed was 84.5 miles per hour.

Pacelli Trims Hortonville High, 26-12

Hortonville — A big 20-point third quarter gave Stevens Point Pacelli a 26-12 win over Hortonville High Saturday afternoon in a non-conference 1958 football opener for both clubs here.
Hortonville matched a Stevens Point first quarter TD when quarterback Gary Kohl threw to Joe Steffen for ten yards in the second period to make the tally 6-6 at the half. Pacelli recovered five Hortonville fumbles in the first half.
The winners counted twice on screen passes in the third period as they moved out in front 26-6. End Ken Huebner counted the final Hortonville TD on an intercepted pass in the fourth period, snaring the ball around the Pacelli 25 and bringing it in.
Huebner turned in a good defensive job. Both of Lon Kringle's conversion tries for the Polar Bears missed the mark.

Hayes Says Bucks are Better Than '57 Club

BY JERRY LISKA

Columbus, Ohio — Coach "Woody" Hayes is working hard to keep his highly-rated Ohio State Buckeyes from getting "fat-headed."
So steamed up is Hayes to repeat as Big Ten football champion, if not to produce a mythical national title, that Thursday he chased a delegation of visiting sports writers from the Buckeye practice field "so we can play some football."
"I have worked harder this fall than any other previous season," said Hayes, starting his eighth Buckeye campaign.
Better Team
Hayes said that compared with the 1957 squad at this point last fall, this year's Buckeye squad looms a better team.
The Buckeyes have 16 lettermen back from last year's club which had a 9-1 record and defeated Oregon in the Rose bowl, 10-7. That is the fewest award winners Hayes has had in his eight years in this football-frenzied city.
Hayes said his grind-em-out split-T attack will present a "more wide open game" with more passing than last year. However, Hayes has said

Colts Capture 1st Exhibition Victory, 27-21

Bears Dominate
Pre-Season Activity
With 5-0 Record

By The Associated Press
...Who's gonna tame the Big Bad Bears?
That was the question today around National Football league circles as the exhibition season made ready for its last fling with Chicago's "Monsters of the Midway," the only undefeated team in the loop.
The Bears, under returning Coach George (Poppa Bear) Halas have put together another strong aggregation headed by the spectacular Willie Galimore, the kid from little-known Florida A&M. In his last outing Friday Galimore romped for four touchdowns.
Score 116 Points
The Bears have torn apart their exhibition opposition to record a 5-0 mark. They have scored 116 points and held their opponents to 65.
Weekend play didn't reveal any strong contender to the Bears.
Sunday, the Baltimore Colts won their first game by defeating the New York Giants, 27-21. The Colts have lost three. The Giants have the worst record of all the clubs, 1-4.
In Saturday encounters, the Washington Redskins downed Green Bay, 23-14, to bring its mark to 3-2. And Philadelphia (2-3) handed the champion Detroit Lions their second defeat in four games, 31-24.

Drop Kick Decides It

Sheboygan North Tips Ghosts on Late TD

Sheboygan — The Sheboygan North High school football team nudged Kaukauna, 14-13, by scoring a 6-inch dropkick and a drop kick in the last 1 minute, 20 seconds of a non-conference game here Saturday afternoon.
The Ghosts broke a scoreless tie midway in the second quarter on a 34-yard pass play, Gary Vanevenhoven to Tony Van Zealand. The latter all alone in the deep right corner of the secondary and took the fourth-and-8 pass in full stride.
North tied it up in the third period on a 1-yard smash by Harry Hummutsch to cap a 72-yard drive.

Kaukauna moved all the way (56 yards) after the next kick-off. Bill Britten smacked over from the 7. The pass from center went over the "holder's" head on the extra-point attempt.
North came back to march 82 yards for the equalizing TD Jim Zabel scored from the 6-inch line. Dave Bach got off his second straight successful dropkick. It just barely stayed inside the upright.
North completed an 11-8 edge in first downs and a 190-141 total yardage edge.

Unusual 'Skin Defenses Held Packers to 65 Yards Rushing

Post-Crescent News Service
Winston Salem, N. C. — Green Bay Coach Ray McLean saw a silver lining in the dark cloud that was the 23-14 defeat pinned on the Packers by the Washington Redskins here Saturday night.
Disappointed that his offense showed no precision or inspiration McLean said "perhaps this was just the sort of game we needed." He explained that unusual defensive alignments were responsible for the "Skins" holding Green Bay to 65 yards rushing.
"The Redskins pointed out, better than I possibly could in a lecture," said McLean, "that we have a lot of work to do on offensive blocking assignments when different defensive maneuvers are made."
"Skins Overshift"
Washington frequently over-shifted its 4-man line and compensated for the overshift with the linebackers. These shifts apparently brought about some confusion in the Green Bay offensive line.
"It's early yet, though," said McLean, who has two more weeks to get his team ready for the NFL opener. "We haven't really set up our offense against all types of defenses but of course we will."
McLean called the Packers' showing the worst of the exhibition schedule, in which they now have a two-to-two record. "We were real sluggish on offense," he said. "Just awful. We don't know just what it was. We've been going along pretty good."
Asked to single out some outstanding Green Bay performers, McLean answered that the Packer defensive line and linebackers had turned in a good night's work. As to the offense, he said that nobody there really had a chance to show what they could do. He added triumph.

that rookie Jim Shanley, the leading gainer with 47 yards in seven carries had looked good in spots. Shanley cracked right tackle for four yards and the Packers' second touchdown in the third quarter.
One Drive
"You have to put on a few consistent drives to win a football game," McLean continued, "and we had only one that amounted to much. That was the one just before the half."
On the march the Packers moved 73 yards from the kickoff in 13 plays, the score coming on a 9-yard pass from Bart Starr to Billy Howton in the right corner of the end zone. That series carried the Packers over the mid field stripe for the first time.
The Packer pass-catching, usually a strong point, wasn't up to par. In the first quarter "Babe" Parrilli threw successful strikes to Howton and McGee and both were dropped. If caught, the pass to Howton would have gone all the way, or about 55 yards in all. Howton had been giving Redskins' wingback Doyle Nix, a former Packer, fits with his start-stop - start tactics and had broken well into the clear.
Praises Line
McLean praised the Redskins' defensive line. "They have a good sound ball club," he said, "both on offense and defense. I think they have more bench strength than last year."
The Packers meet the "Skins" in a regular season game this year.
The Redskins used veteran safety men Joe Scudero and Dick James to protect against home-run passes and Redskin Coach Joe Kuharich thought their work was a major contribution to the Washington victory.

No Fat Men
"We have a big first line, but there is not a fat man on there," said Hayes.
"Our 186-pound Frank is the best blocker I've had at Ohio State."
In the backfield, White weighs a bruising 207; Kremblas 193; and Clark and Dick Lebeau at halfbacks, 187 and 182.
Co-favored with Michigan State, Wisconsin and Iowa, Ohio State does not meet Michigan State until next year. "I'd rather play Michigan State this year," said Hayes, "because we're mainly a senior team."

Chisox Celebrate Re-Hiring of Lopez by Copping 2 From Nats

By The Associated Press
It's official now. The Yankees can start thinking about the Milwaukee Braves and the World Series.
They finally nailed it down yesterday in Kansas City, winning the first game of a doubleheader, 5-3. That did it mathematically.
"Whitey" Ford, who has been out of action with elbow trouble, had a 5-inning tuneup in the second game but the Yankees had to come up with five runs in the fourteenth inning to win it, 12-7, making Ralph Terry a double loser.
Chicago celebrated the re-hiring of Manager Al Lopez for another year by bumping off Washington twice, 7-1 and 6-5.
The White Sox have a new challenger for second place. Detroit took over third by beating Boston 6-1 and 9-3, stretching the Red Sox' losing streak to seven games.

In the ninth Springer lofted a fly to center for the first out but "Butch" Konetzke kept the Mac hopes alive with a single to center. Ken Konetzke followed with his 4-bagger for the final two runs. Harke got pinch hitter Ron Bunkelman on a tap to the first baseman and Koehnke struck out.
Harke set the Macs down for the third time this season. He struck out six and issued only one base on balls.
Gene Gries started for the Macs and lasted 4 2/3 innings. Mort Drury finished up at 7 v-ing four hits and two runs. The rest of the way.

Round Table $25,451 Short Of Record

By The Associated Press
Round Table and Clem are going separate ways and that should suit Travis M. Kerr just fine.
Twice within the last two weeks Round Table from Kerr's Oklahoma stable has had a golden opportunity to top Nashua as the world's leading money winning thoroughbred. And each time Clem, flying the silks of Mrs. Adele L. Rand of Santa Fe, N. M., thwarted his bid.
So today, after bowing to Clem in the $100,000 United Nations Handicap at Atlantic City last Saturday, Round Table still needs $25,451 to match Nashua's record of $1,288,565. His second in the U. N. was worth $20,000. Clem picked up $65,000 to run his total earnings to $742,647.
Round Table's next engagement is the $100,000 added Woodward at Belmont Park Sept. 27, in which he is scheduled to tackle another tough contender for horse of the year honors, Gallant Man.

Tommy Jacobs Wins Denver Centennial Open

Denver — It's taken Tommy Jacobs 14 months to notch his first professional golf victory, but now look out. The skinny youngster from Whittier, Calif., says he's ready.
"I learned a few things in that one," said 23-year-old Tommy Sunday after nailing down $2,800 first place money in the $20,000 Denver Centennial Open tourney. The leader, throughout, the rookie shot his third straight 3-under par 67 for a 72-hole total of 266.
That was one stroke better than Ernie Vossler of Mid-woodie, Ill., with a 270 and land, Texas, who finished with $1,300.

The Braves overcame a 1-0 Dodger edge with two runs in the second on a triple by Frank Torre and Joe Adcock's eighteenth circuit blow. A walk, Torre's single, a force-out and Bruton's sacrifice fly gave them a 3-1 advantage in the fourth off their nemesis, Don Drysdale.

Kentucky '11' Belts Hawaii to Win 1st Opening Tilt Since '51

Louisville, Ky. — The University of Kentucky Wildcats have ended a 7-year jinx — thanks largely to the efforts of a speedy youngster named Tommy Aaron, 5 and Calvin Bird.
Bird, a sophomore half-back from Corbin, Ky., scored four times in a 51-0 victory over the University of Hawaii Rainbows Saturday night.
It was the first opening-game victory for Kentucky since 1951.

Billy Herman's 'Digs' Inspire Dodgers, Claims Don Zimmer

Milwaukee — Wonder why the Los Angeles Dodgers have taken 14 of 21 games from the defending champion Milwaukee Braves this season?
Scrappy Don Zimmer of the Dodgers says it's because of being called prima donnas by Braves' Coach Billy Herman, a former Dodger, during spring training.
Some of the Braves' players admit privately that Zimmer may be right.
"The Whole Story"
Herman, a coach with the 1952 Brooklyn Dodgers from 1957-58, was quoted as saying several Dodgers were lazy, complacent and prima donnas.
He did not mention any names, but later said he did not mean "PeeWee" Reese, Gil Hodges or Carl Furillo.
After the fifth-place Dodgers' 5-3 victory Sunday, Zimmer said Herman's remarks were "the whole story" behind L. A.'s fine showing against Milwaukee.
"The other guys might not say anything about it," Zimmer said, "but they feel the same way I do. We talked about it in spring training. We didn't say any more about it, but we didn't forget."

"than take on one of Europe's heavyweights."
The inference was that he didn't think much of the current crop in Europe.
In Chicago, Truman Gibson, president of the International Boxing club, confirmed that there was a return bout contract between Johansson and Machen and said he'd like to get them in the ring in Chicago in January.
Goes To Top
Thus, Johansson, who is 25 and still hasn't been defeated, goes to the top of the challengers for Patterson's title. He stands an even 6 feet tall and weighs 198 pounds.
He dropped Machen three times in the less than three minutes of fighting, twice for eight counts.
Then he finished him off with a barrage of punches culminated by a tremendous right to the head. Machen had to be helped to his corner by his handlers.
Machen said he didn't have a chance to warm up and complained that he was not used to the climate.

Determination Helps Coe Win Amateur Title

San Francisco — Determination born of a miserable round in last year's Masters tournament furnished lanky Charlie Coe that extra something needed to win the 1958 National Amateur golf title.
"When I shot an 86 for a round at the Masters, I knew I had to do something about it," the 34-year-old Oklahoma City oil broker declared.
"I figured I was getting to a point when I didn't get it pretty quick I'd never get it," he added. "So I worked hard at it."
The payoff came Saturday over the tricky Olympic Country club course when the 140-pound, 6 footer whipped a husky University of Florida student, Tommy Aaron, 5 and Calvin Bird.

Young Tallies 2 TDs as Badger Varsity Romps

Madison — Sophomore quarterback Francis "Shorty" Young scored two touchdowns Saturday as Wisconsin's first and second football units scored a 63-0 victory over reserves in a 2-hour game-type scrimmage.
Coach Milt Bruhn expressed pleasure with the performance of Young, who scored on a 50-yard punt return and on a 30-yard run from scrimmage. Young also passed to Jon Hibbs for a third touchdown.
Young had the entire scrimmage to display his stuff because regular quarterbacks, Dale Hackbart and Sid Williams were nursing injuries.

If the "man of the house" grumbles and groans when bill-paying times comes around, tell him this:

Credit union members find it easier to pay bills. They can save ahead — they can borrow extra cash — they can save and borrow at the same time. Using the credit union, they can handle their money problems as they come. Get your husband to join a credit union, then watch his outlook improve.

With few exceptions, your savings are matched dollar for dollar and in case of your death or permanent disability, your loan is "Paid in Full" — with insurance provided by your credit union at no extra charge through CUNA Mutual, the credit union insurance company.

Old Vic Company

To Come to U. S.

New York —(AP)— The Old Vic, one of London's most renowned acting companies, is coming to the United States this fall for its first coast-to-coast tour.

On previous visits, the troupe has played in only five American cities, none farther west than Chicago. This tour begins in San Francisco Sept. 16, proceeds to Los Angeles and then eastward via principal cities in both this country and Canada before reaching Broadway in December.

The repertory is to include "Hamlet," "Twelfth Night" and "Henry V."

Abe Burrows Works On Musical Version Of Victorian Novel

New York —(AP)— Abe Burrows, one of Broadway's best-known laughsmiths and play doctors, is at work on the book for a musical version of Jane Austen's Victorian classic "Pride and Prejudice." He is also to direct the enterprise.

The score is to be prepared by Robert Goldman and Glenn Paxton, White Way newcomers who have written several shows for the undergraduate Triangle club at Princeton university.

the Boulting twins, John and Roy, the producer - director team of the movie called "Brothers in Law." The co-stars are Richard Attenborough, Ian Carmichael and Jill Adams.

The other film is the lively "The French They are a Funny Race," newly titled movie version of the side-splitting best seller by Pierre Danino. The book is remembered as "The Notebooks of Major Thompson."

This one is a rollicking spoof on the manners, morals, and attitudes of the French as seen through the eyes of an Englishman. The film stars the popular French comedian, Pere-Pere; the well-known British actor, Jack Buchanan, in the role of Major Thompson, and Martine Carol, one of France's most popular actresses.

Miss Carol makes her debut in her first English speaking part in "The French They are a Funny Race."

Station's Cowboy Big 3 Headed Thisaway

WFRV-TV's 'Maverick,' 'Sugarfoot,' 'Cheyenne' End Summer Rerun Shows

BY JINGO

They're coming thisaway, WFRV-TV's cowboy Big Three. None of them, regrettably, have been away, what with reruns, but the repeats in each case are ended.

"Maverick," featuring a pair of bibbed card dealers, shuffles into its second season at 6:30 Sunday night.

The first program is titled "The Day They Hanged Bret Maverick." It very well may portend "The Season They Hanged Ed Sullivan."

Sullivan, Big Town sources say, has cast aside fears of Steve Allen in favor of the Maverick brothers, who sliced off a large chunk of his audience in a few short weeks last season.

Jingo believes "Maverick's" sponsor particularly hurt the show by extending 13 weeks of shows to a full year. Familiarity like this breeds ho-hum.

"Sugarfoot," as reported earlier, cantered onto the TV trail at 6:30 Tuesday night for its second season. The over-sweet boy-hero is forced by outlaws to lead them a "ss a desert."

"Cheyenne," which alternates with "Sugarfoot" every two weeks, rides in for its fourth season a week from Tuesday, with a new hero in the saddle.

The new hero is Bronco Layne, played by Ty Hardin.

Good old Bronco saves a California-bound family from plunder by bandits in the first episode, but reports have it he's not long for the white mantle.

Clint Walker, THE "Cheyenne," refused to continue until his wages were hiked and Warner Brothers replaced him with Hardin. He was out, out, the moguls said.

Now, it appears Walker won after all. So, look for Bronco to step into a sidekick's role while the unfrocked Walker walks back into the spotlight.

Jingo's Jewels: Jimmy Dean started a 30-minute, 5-day-a-week afternoon show at 1 o'clock this afternoon on WBAY-TV. Arthur Godfrey also returned to his weekday morning show this morning, same network. Godfrey's once weekly nighttime show moves into the 8 o'clock Tuesday night spot a week from Tuesday, same station, replacing "To Tell the Truth."

"Target," a dramatic show boosted by a personal appearance in Green Bay last week by Host Adolph Menjou, bows at 8:30 Tuesday night on WFRV-TV.

"Captain Kangaroo" returns to its 7 o'clock weekday morning time on WBAY-TV Monday, Sept. 29. The show also will switch on "Whirlybirds," action series which bowed Sunday night on WFRV-TV, are for real, the proud producers say, "Official Detective" and "This is Music" tonight replace the mystery series which WFRV-TV was carrying in the 7 o'clock slot.

Boost in Orders For Boxes Shows Business Better

Chicago — A growing demand for paperboard and boxes used to pack manufactured hard goods indicates industry is stepping up production and expects to boost it still more, according to the Wall Street Journal.

The president of one Iowa corrugated box company said that up to June many box firms were operating on the strength of daily orders. Now the firm has a backlog equal to 30 days production and it's still mounting.

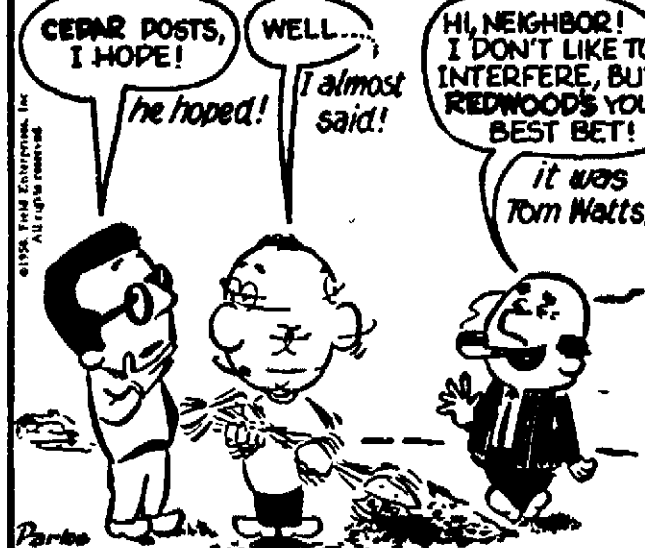

Many other box manufacturing firms reported much the same thing. A check of more than 29 box makers and box users—big and small—turns up evidence that the increased demand for paperboard containers does indeed reflect better sales of goods. And, most of the improvement seems to be in industries which only recently were finding their goods hard to move.

Box orders from firms in the building industry, and makers of refrigerators, washers, driers and other appliances are increasing. The same trend was noted in orders from makers of auto parts.

But the truth is I did a little too much gardening."

Lesson in English

BY W. L. GORDON

Words often misused: Say, "James was accompanied by his brother (a person)." Say, "The war was accompanied with loss (a thing)." Often mispronounced: Messieurs (usually abbreviated "Messrs."). Pronounce messerz, accent on first syllable. Often misspelled: Decimal; observe the "r" and the "a." Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Today's word: belie; to misrepresent. "His words belie his true feelings about the matter."

Canadian Paper Firm Expands Newsprint Plant

Toronto, Ontario — Abitibi Power and Paper Company has spent $15,600,000 during the last 24 years expanding facilities for newsprint production at its Fort William, Ontario mill.

This expansion program provides additional grinding, steam generation, and newsprint production capacity. Planning of the expansion program was started in 1955 and a new newsprint machine was ordered for delivery in 1958.

A semi-automatic roll wrapping and handling system was installed in the new finishing room. This system will reduce to a minimum the manual labor in handling the rolls from the paper machines to boxcars, and has sufficient capacity to handle the production of the new machine plus two old machines.

Some Blue Chips Ease to Put Brake On Averages

New York — (AP) The stock market pushed closer to its record high in active trading early this afternoon.

Leading issues rose from fractions to around 2 points, but a few fairly sharp losses among blue chips put a brake on the rising averages.

There were some wider gains by special stocks as well as a scattering of small losses.

Rails were a strong point from the start and improved their gains in brisk dealings.

Strength in American Motors

Monday, Sept. 15, 1958 Appleton Post-Crescent C7

spread to other automotive stocks. The feeling in Wall street was that a strike in the industry would be averted.

Nonferrous metals were outstanding gainers. Their rise was backgrounded by reports custom smelters may advance their price for copper and that a United Nations conference in London suggested temporary restrictions on exports and world production of lead and zinc.

Steels rose as reports were that the industry's production had reached a new high for the year.

The rise might have been brisker, said brokers, if not for the Jewish New Year observance which usually is a dampener on trading.

Among the steels, Lukens jumped more than 3 U. S. of his car here.

Steel and Republic Steel rose more than a point. Among the rails, Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio, Southern Railway and New York Central were ahead close to a point or more.

Declines of a point or so by American Telephone and Du Pont were a drag on the average. Allied Chemical, Loew's and Standard Oil (New Jersey), also pivots, eased.

Golfer Dejected

ert H. Miller of Ottumwa, Iowa, doesn't expect his game to improve this summer. Thieves stole a matched set of Cary Middlecoff autographed clubs from the trunk of his car here.
